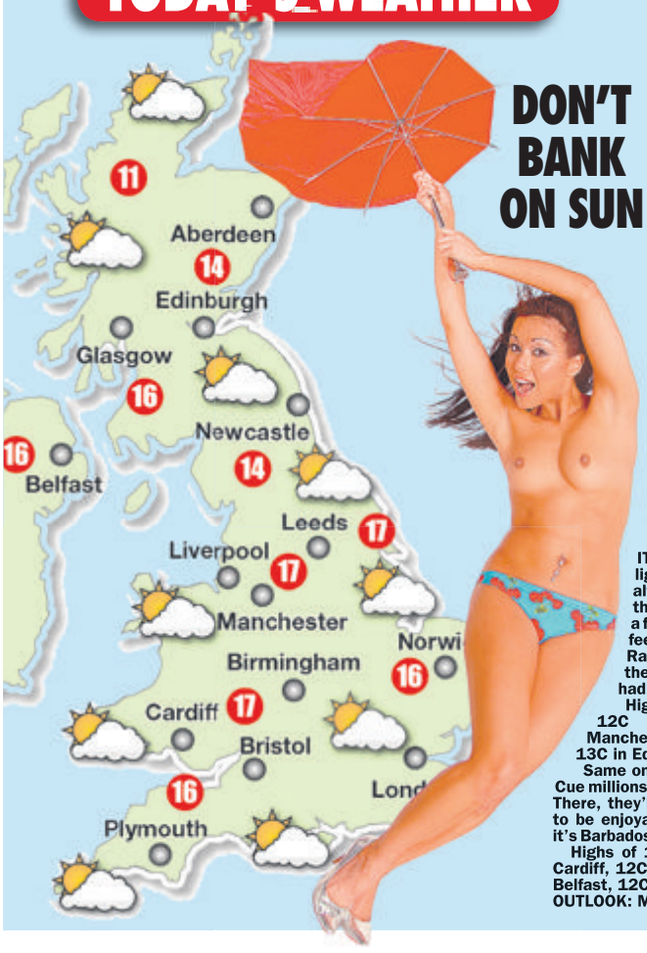
TODAY'S WEATHER



DON'T BANK ON SUN

IT'LL be mainly dry with light winds on Sunday and although mainly cloudy, the sun will break through a few times and then it will feel deliciously pleasant. Rather a nice change from the Biblical rains we've had recently.

Highs of 11C in London, 12C in Cardiff, 13C in Manchester, 11C in Belfast, 13C in Edinburgh.

Same on Bank Holiday Monday. Cue millions heading to the seaside. There, they'll find it's still too cold to be enjoyable but they'll pretend it's Barbados. Good old British pluck.

Highs of 13C in London, 14C in Cardiff, 12C in Manchester, 13C in Belfast, 12C in Edinburgh.

OUTLOOK: More of the same.

TUES: Wet

WED: Dry

THURS: Smooth

Emily gets Rat-arsed!

THE hottest woman on the planet, Emily Ratajkowski, proved her ARSE is just as nice as her boobs after showing it off online.

The Brit-born pin-up and actress first aired her breasts in the pop video for Robin Thick's song Blurred Lines.

She also got 'em out in recent movie Gone Girl in a sex scene with co-star Ben Affleck.

But it's her pert derriere that got fans drooling last week after she uploaded it to her Instagram page.

One snap showed the brunette posing topless by a bush while in another she relaxed by the pool.

One male admirer, clearly on the vinegar strokes, posted: "aaah-hgghgggggghghhhgh-haaaa!!!!!"

Another commented: "Dream body x".

Emily, 23, is the most in-demand babe in Hollywood, as she prepares to make her debut in TV comedy Entourage before starring in new flick We Are Your Friends.

Kelly set for sketch show

CURVY Kelly Brook is set to take British TV by storm – starring in her very own comedy show.

The 35-year-old (above) recently showed off her bare boobs and bum in Yank sitcom One Big Happy.

But despite decent ratings the show has been AXED in the US.

Now her pal Leigh Francis – who plays comic character Keith Lemon on Celebrity Juice – has offered to write her a sketch show.

And it is thought ITV2 are very keen to commission it.

An insider said: "Kelly is brilliant – she outshone Hollywood stars Elisha Cuthbert and Nick Zano.

"And bosses at ITV reckon she'd be great in her own sketch show – they've worked with her before and she's BRILLIANT."

MONDAY

MOCKNEY twat Jamie Oliver re-ignites his war of words with rival chef and saucepan flogger Gordon Ramsay.

Friends say he should have bit his tongue.

But unfortunately it's so fat he can't get his teeth around it.

TUESDAY

A CAR salesman who pulled an injured motorist from the burning wreckage of a crash receives a police medal.

Experts say it was particularly brave for a car salesman to tackle a fire.

All that oily skin and hair gel – they usually go up like a 70s sofa on bonfire night.

WEDNESDAY

A SURVEY reveals that more and more students are becoming hookers to pay their way through university.

It makes you wonder about those fancy initials they put after their names once they've graduated.

My best guess: BSc = basic sex chat, BA = backdoor action and PhD = pleasured hundreds of dongs.

THURSDAY

ITV hosts the party leaders' election debate in a studio that looks like the set of the old quiz show Fifteen To One.

Coincidentally, 15-1 is also the likely odds of Nick Clegg keeping his seat.

(Nick, if you've never seen quiz shows or horse racing on the telly, don't fret – you'll have plenty of time to catch up after May.)

FRIDAY

A HERITAGE train company apologises after allowing a porn film to be made on one of its carriages.

The Brazzers movie, shot on board an Epping Ongar Railway locomotive, shows a woman having sex while dressed as a schoolgirl.

It's not known whether she dressed as a teenager to turn viewers on or simply to get a half-price ticket.

So all that time we thought she wanted Paul Hollywood's spotted dick, she was more interested in Mary Berry's soggy (front) bottom.

HOOKER OFFERS £2K PACK

SNATCH OF THE DAY!

GREAT VIEW: But Kat shows customers a lot more than Reds' stadium

A NAUGHTY Red Devil today delivers a KICK to the balls of Ryan Giggs and Gary Neville, telling how she sells SEX from the footballers' swanky new hotel!

Manchester United legends Giggs and Neville are the brains behind Hotel Football, a swanky £24m attraction built in the shadow of Old Trafford stadium.

The project, which opened last month, is also backed by former England aces Phil Neville, Paul Scholes and Nicky Butt.

But the soccer superstars will have faces as crimson as the famous shirt they wore as brunette HOOKER Kat Lee lifts the lid on her exploits in their lavish four-star rooms.

She's charging punters a whopping £2,000 for a 'VIP Matchday Package' – which enables TWO fans to have their wicked way with Kat during all-night threesomes at the hotel.

And if you're feeling really frisky, you can take Kat up the Stretford End, as she's partial to ANAL nookie.

By NEIL GOODWIN
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

The former porn star – real name Zayna Ellemore – is even advertising the saucy enterprise on her Adultwork.com website.

In an EXCLUSIVE interview with Sunday Sport, the 34FF beauty said: "I'm a huge United fan, even though I'm originally from Sunderland, so this is a dream come true for me.

Satisfy

"Being a high-class escort requires I have somewhere to satisfy my clients. Often I meet people in my own private apartment, but I also spend a lot of time in hotels.

"Because I love United so much, I'm going to make Hotel Football my new base – I mean, just look at the views out over Old Trafford, it's amazing!

"And if Giggsy and Neville want to experience what I have to offer in person, I will definitely give them a discount!"

Outrageous Kat, 28, is hardly discreet, arriving for our photoshoot clutching a big carrier bag full of DILDOS – which subsequently split, spilling the X-rated contents onto the plush carpeted floor.

Kat says she's not just in demand from beer-bellied male football fans.

She said: "Women like football too, and quite a lot of my clients have been ladies, though the majority of those I've seen at Hotel Football have been rich businessmen from overseas who want to experience their first time at a Manchester United match and a chance to see the likes of Wayne Rooney in action."

Kat claims to be able to secure lucrative match-day tickets from a well-connected pal, and even hinted she has access to a VIP box.

The brazen prostitute, who has a twin sister and once dated Coronation Street actor Jimmi Harkishin, can also accommodate your most taboo S&M bondage fantasies.

Welsh winger Giggs, 41, recently said of his venture: "Obviously here it's right in the shadow of Old Trafford, but Hotel Football is something that we hope to take around the UK and eventually around the world, so it's more a celebration of football in general."

WAYNE EVENT: Kat says she can get her punters matchday tickets as well as a service at the hotel

Jobs

That's good news for Kat – she regularly gets booked by clients for international 'jobs' and spends a large part of the year in Dubai.

A spokeswoman for Hotel Football said: "We won't be providing comment on this story."

Blue Lee in home satanic ritual horror

SHOWBIZ fkwit Lee Ryan is worried he has accidentally summoned-up an angry DEMON after dabbling in the occult.

The Blue singer – known for his embarrassing gaffes – now claims to be a Hollywood scriptwriter who's working on some upcoming horror flicks.

And while researching one film, Lee says that he unwittingly unleashed HELL.

The 31-year-old said: "I write horror films, so I scare the shit out of myself. I was researching my latest script and I was reading a satanic website.

"It said, 'If you do not want to summon devils, do not read this'. But I did. For the next few nights I was convinced there was a spirit in my house."

You might also want to avoid going on holiday with the crooner.

He's just got back from Peru, and said: "I spent time surrounded by tarantulas, singing Kumbaya, My Lord, with my guitar next to the flames.

"I loved it."

An image of the female in a "compromising position" was posted on Twitter by Aaron Lamb, 24.

The ex-soldier was hauled before Barnsley Magistrates' Court where he admitted sending a grossly offensive or indecent Twitter message.

The dispute was about whether the woman gave her consent for the pic to be posted on social media.

Lamb, of Barnsley, claimed the saucy pic was of his CURRENT partner and was taken with her consent.

But prosecutors said the image was of his ex-girlfriend and was posted without her permission.

Lamb spent five years in the Army and had done two tours of Afghanistan.

He was fined £70 with £50 costs.

THE VOICE OF YOUR BRITAIN

Mail web 'filth' shows Middle have no class

AT Sunday Sport we consider ourselves men of the world.

Barely a day goes by without someone making a racy quip or reciting a near-the-knuckle limerick.

Many of us have visited the fleshpots of the East.

We are no maiden aunts.

But we have been saddened and APPALLED by the amount of sexually-suggestive comments directed at lovely actress Michelle Keegan.

This barrage of bawdiness began – naturally – on the social media site Twitter.

But since then it has spread to no less than the website of the DAILY MAIL.

Although not everyone's cup of tea, the Mail has always been regarded as a bastion of middle-class respectability.

Now the comments section of the newspaper's website is crammed with inappropriate sexual remarks – often directed at Michelle Keegan.

Is this the sort of thing that the Rothermere family – one of Britain's foremost publishing dynasties – had in mind for their esteemed titles?

We certainly hope not.

Off their trolleys!

WE have all been there.

On arriving at a supermarket to buy an Easter egg for a young relative or loved one, the sight of empty shelves where once groaned countless eggs makes any crest fall.

Especially as the chocolate treats took their place on the aisles around three days after Christmas.

Now we learn that single mum Kelly Davies of Preston offered fellatio to anyone who could supply her with chocolate eggs for her brood – after her local supermarket "sold out".

The supermarkets have too much power, we all know that.

But when their refusal to stock Easter eggs past Good Friday leads to young mothers sucking off strangers, questions must be asked.

Jailhouse ruck

LESBIANS in an Italian jail rioted at news the lovely-and-now-officially-innocent Amanda Knox would not be returning to their nick.

Prisoners can be scary. Lesbians can be scary.

We can only imagine the full horror of lesbo jailbirds in full-throated riot.

The human soul was not built to withstand such terrors.

EGGSRAY: Proof that Bruce broke his own anal record

THAT'S NO YOLK!

Record smashed with 9 Creme Eggs up bum

NOTHING says Christ's suffering on the Cross and His triumph over death than a thick milk chocolate shell, housing a white and yellow fondant filling.

That's right, folks – we're slap bang in the middle of Cadbury's Creme Egg season.

A staggering 200million Creme Eggs are eaten in the UK every year – enough to make a pile TEN TIMES the height of Mount Everest.

But oddball Bruce Patterson doesn't eat the sugary treats – he shoves them up his ARSE.

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

Patterson, 34, has held the unofficial word record of six anally-inserted Creme Eggs since 2010.

On Good Friday he smashed that record – by lodging NINE of them in his rectal cavity.

The proud singleton beamed last night: "I'm having some difficulty sitting down and I'll be shitting fondant for a week but I know the record is secure for years to come.

"I think nine eggs is at the very limit of human anal endurance."

Strict Guinness Book of Record rules mean that Largest Number of Cadbury's Creme Eggs Up The Arse is not officially-recognised.

But Brian is famous enough in his home town of Chorley, Lancs.

He said: "I'm known as Chorley's Eggs Up The Arse Man. You can't buy an accolade like that."

PROUD: Bruce is well known in his home town

Corrie news: an apology

IN this week's edition of Sunday Sport we had hoped to bring you a sizzling story about a Coronation Street actress who filmed a TABOO sex act on her mobile phone.

But last night, Sunday Sport was sensationally BLOCKED from reporting the story – thanks to a last-minute High Court injunction.

And millions of copies of the paper were last night PULPED as a result.

But make no mistake, our lawyers are working throughout the Bank Holiday weekend – on THREE TIMES their normal, already-hefty rate – and we hope to bring you the story as soon as possible.

In the light of the findings of the Leveson Inquiry, this newspaper strives to act entirely responsibly, and will continue so to do.

Desperate mum's shocking Facebook offer...

I'll NOSH YOU OFF for 3 Easter eggs

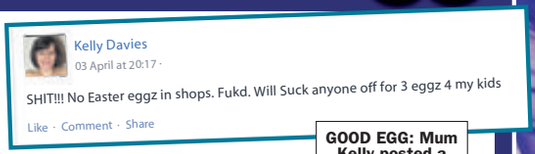
A MUM-OF-THREE who left it too late to buy Easter eggs for her kids offered to SUCK OFF anyone who could provide the treats.

Single mum Kelly Davies, from Boston, Lincs, posted the offer on Facebook and within minutes had offers of chocky eggs for her little ones – Kyle, 10, Kai, nine, and Kane, eight!

An hour later the post went viral on Twitter and 28-year-old Kelly became an international "celebrity".

Last night Kelly said: "I'd been to the pub with some friends early doors on Friday. And when I went to pick the kids up from our mam's she asked what Easter eggs I'd got them.

"I'd forgotten. And they were all sold out in the shops. So I went on Facebook and said I'd suck anyone off if they could give us three.



GOOD EGG: Mum Kelly posted a sex-for-choc offer on Facebook

Struggling

"Dirty Ali calls us up about midnight and says he's got some from his dad's shop, which are past their sell by date but I can have them for a nosh.

"I says because they're past their sell by date I'll let him finger us."

Kelly was not the only one struggling to find Easter eggs last week.

Although supermarket giants started stocking Easter eggs just after Christmas, by last week Tesco, Morrisons and Asda's websites only had limited ranges left.

Lesbians' fury at B&Q closure plan

LESBIANS are up in arms at plans to close 60 B&Q stores – claiming the DIY chain is a huge meeting place for hot Sapphic sex!

The chain's parent company, Kingfisher, announced the closures last week after falling profits and a sales slump.

While that's bad news for DIY fans, it's worse news for the lesbians – who often meet others of their kind in the aisles.

Leading lesbian Julie Bindel wrote in leftie loss-making Guardian newspaper: "Many a Sapphic romance has developed in B&Q.

"Nothing signifies more clearly that the woman in a checked shirt looking at spirit levels on a Sunday morning neither has a man at home, nor indeed wants one.

"Ikea is not quite as reliable for lesbo spotting – it is a Scandinavian store and at least half of all women in that part of the world look like one of the tribe.

"Lesbians have long been required to pop in to B&Q twice a year in order to keep our gay membership alive.

"But what will become of us now?"

STUCK-UP WIFE

AN EVIL husband superglued his wife's privates closed after falsely accusing her of having an affair with her uncle in Mpumalanga, South Africa.

Sophie's 1D star

BOYBAND STAR FLIRTED

FORMER One Direction star Zayn Malik began on his path to self-destruction after he was SNUBBED by Big Brother star Sophie Reade, we can reveal.

The Steal My Girl singer has announced his departure from the popular boyband, saying he wants "some private time out of the spotlight."

He signed off from the band's Asian tour due to "stress", and faced several allegations of cheating on his fiancée, Little Mix babe Perrie Edwards.

By TOM RHODES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Now we can EXCLUSIVELY reveal the 22-year-old hunk quit the band soon after contacting busty glamour girl Sophie!

Back when he was a contestant on ITV's The X Factor, Zayn tried to flirt with the 30GG beauty on Twitter – but she flat-out rejected him.

In January 2011, the Bradford-born lad tweeted: "@xSophieReadex hello gorgeous zayn here from 1d x."

But the 25-year-old beauty did NOT respond to Zayn's public message, which was embarrassingly retweeted by 1,455 of his followers!

Last year Sophie, who's from Nantwich, Cheshire, spoke about the unfortunate incident, saying: "A few singers have been in touch before – and someone from One Direction asked me out.

"But it wasn't Harry Styles! It was Zayn, but before he got with the girl from Little Mix.

"I turned him down because he was far too young, but I'm guessing he's more experienced these days!"

A showbiz source said last night: "The dust is finally settling on Zayn's departure and it's pretty obvious why he left the band.

"He was just a normal teenage boy, so naturally he would have been OBSESSED with Sophie's magnificent boobs.

"And with all the female attention that came with The X Factor, he assumed that Sophie would want to sleep with him.

"The cheeky fella!"

Zayn and his fiancee were last week doing their best to put the media storm behind them as they enjoyed a relaxing holiday in the sunshine.

The blonde beauty was seen boarding a plane with the Zayn and his family as they jetted out of the UK.

The couple, along with Zayn's family, posted a number of defiant selfies on Instagram, which appeared to have been taken in Perugia, Italy.

Perrie shared a snap on Instagram of the loved-up pair kissing, with the caption: "'oui' – French for 'yes'."

COLD-EYED dictator Vladimir Putin has a weapon of unimaginable power that could destroy the ENTIRE WORLD in a fraction of a second.

And experts say the Russian tyrant's possession of the doomsday device is the reason he can trample over other nations, such as Ukraine, without the West intervening.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Putin's wonder weapon is thought to be based on ANTI-MATTER – a mystery substance that can cause galaxy-ripping wormholes if it comes into contact with our universe.

The anti-matter was found encased in a glass sphere, buried 26-feet underground in western Ukraine.

Boffins from the Russian Academy of Sciences, the Moscow Physical Engineering Institute and the Soyuz Scientific and Industrial Association examined the ball and were stunned to find it had a NEGATIVE weight – clear evidence of spooky anti-matter.

Unsure of how to deal with their find, the boffins simply continued experimenting until the KGB got wind and CONFISCATED it.

It has taken years of research but now experts think Putin's boffins have created a viable weapon.

One expert, who asked not to be named for fear of reprisals, said: "Putin has a weapon that makes the most powerful atom bomb look like a popgun.

"An anti-matter bomb would effectively create a black hole on earth, which would suck in all of the solar system in a fraction of a second."

Supermarket w*nker tossed jizz on woman

A MAN masturbated in a supermarket and flicked "bodily fluids" on an unsuspecting shopper.

Sick Taylor Davis (above), 20, stalked a woman through the aisles as he listened to porn on his headphones and fondled himself, hiding his disgusting behaviour by slipping his hand through a hole he'd cut in his sweatshirt.

A sharp-eyed security guard spotted Davis, a DisneyWorld employee, as he trailed his female victim in at Wal-Mart in Kissimmee, Florida.

The guard called cops after Davis flicked his semen on the woman.

An officer found Davis sitting in his car in the parking lot.

The pervert quickly confessed, telling cops he'd been masturbating in public for nearly a year.

Davis was charged with disorderly conduct and criminal mischief.

He was bailed but authorities say he could face additional charges if any victims to come forward.

Train smash truck tosser's fireball drama

A PERVERT who was caught masturbating in a car park fled the scene in his pickup truck – which was then hit by a TRAIN.

Shaun R. McMilian, 39, was parked in a black pickup truck at an apartment complex in Roseburg, Oregon, "masturbating and attempting to entice women over to him".

When police arrived at the scene, "the male drove off recklessly," cops said.

McLilian's pickup drove up onto the railway tracks, where it struck a passing train was then was dragged for half a mile.

The vehicle separated from the train and rolled back onto the road, where it then struck a power pole and caught FIRE.

McMilian was transported to Mercy Medical Center where he was treated for minor injuries and then locked up at the Douglas County Jail on charges of public indecency, reckless driving, attempt to elude and driving under the influence of a controlled substance.

Cops hunt road cam flash perv

POLICE are hunting a flasher who exposed himself TWICE to a roadside CCTV camera.

Video footage shows the man taking off his clothes and climbing onto the front of a vehicle in the south-east Melbourne suburb of Rowville.

Cops said: "He was exposing himself while yelling and screaming abuse at the operator."

The man climbs onto the car's bonnet and sticks one hand in the air before thrusting his genitals at the camera.

A Victoria Police spokesperson told Daily Mail Australia: "This is not an April Fool's joke – we've put video of the incident on our website."

MELINDA MESSINGER

By JOSEPH SCRIMSHIRE
joseph@sundaysport.co.uk

AH, how could we forget busty Melinda Messenger?

Aside from being one of the most successful glamour models of all time, she's also a telly presenter, businesswoman and fitness guru!

Back in 1996, Melinda was working as an office manager for a marketing company in Swindon when she got her big break.

She signed to a local modelling agency and later appeared in an advert for Gloucester-based double glazing firm Glevum Windows.

The campaign poster featured Melinda wearing her bra and knickers with the slogan "Class Behind Glass".

But the posters kept disappearing from bus stops – because horny local blokes were STEALING them!

Banned

And following complaints about Melissa's bra-bustin' 34DDs, the Advertising Standards Authority banned the campaign.

But after several newspapers picked up on the story, Melinda became an overnight sensation!

She was snapped up by fellow model Samantha Fox's agent Yvonne Paul and her glamour modelling took off.

Melinda, now 44, soon became one of the most famous topless models of the late 1990s and often featured on the pages of Sunday Sport.

After a few years in the limelight she started working regularly on TV, including C4's late-night EuroTrash.

She was even given her own talk show on Channel 5, Melinda's Big Night In, and launched a fitness DVD called Back Into Shape Workout.

But her most famous presenting role was on popular game show Fort Boyard, which ran from 1998 to 2001.

She currently hosts the Health Lottery Draws on ITV and Channel 5 and is the director of a Swindon-based electronics company.

But we'll always remember Melinda for her amazing TOPLESS snaps!

Stephanie, 28 (above) also took PICTURES of the lovers on her phone – to capture the moment for posterity!

The Los Angeles-born socialite revealed: "There's a club that I love in London called The Box. Some weird stuff goes on in there.

"During the night they will welcome anything on to the stage – from girls dancing with fire to couples having sex in front of you while you're having a drink!

"You know you've had a great night out when you look back on your phone and see photos of little people serving you champagne as you watch a live sex show!"

I SAW this bloke shouting, "Lambs for sale. Were £10. Now £5". I thought, "That's sheep at half the price!"

Knicker nicker's Next stop - jail

A PANTIES thief has been jailed after nicking £130 worth of UNDERWEAR.

Richard Goulding, 36, breached a previously imposed suspended jail term when he pinched the gear from a Next shop in Sheffield, South Yorks.

He has now clocked up 230 offences dating back to 1993 and the 30 pages of previous convictions took 20 minutes to read out in court.

Security guards noticed Goulding acting suspiciously and as he left, asked him to stop – before he fled, and was later caught and arrested.

It was his intention to sell the underwear on.

Jaiing Goulding, of Sheffield, for a year, Judge Peter Kelson QC, said: "If you will not comply with the millions of chances you have been given then a jail sentence will give the shop owners of Sheffield peace."

BELLY FUNNY: Ed in Kim's navel

FACE OF ED FOUND IN GUTBUCKET'S BELLY BUTTON

THERE was some rare good news for beleaguered Labour boss Ed Miliband last night when the image of his face was found in a fatso's BELLY BUTTON!

By SIMON DEAN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Twenty-five stone Kimberley Foster found the likeness of the nerdy socialist while picking fluff out her navel with a paperclip.

And the 27-year-old, from Sandwich, Kent, reckons the miraculous appearance bodes well for the Opposition leader.

Single Kim said: "As a person wholly dependent on benefits and unwilling to do a stroke of work, I'm a natural Labour voter.

"The idea that I may have to find gainful employment to fund my pie and cake habit is, at best, very offensive.

"A Labour victory is the best chance I have of continuing my life of sloth and indolence.

"Imagine my delight when I saw Ed's face peering out at me from my umbilicus! This is an omen of Labour triumph on May 7."

Last night a source close to the Labour boss said: "We are sure that Britain will make Ed Miliband Prime Minister. They share our vision of a better vision, a fairer Britain…hell, yes! Oh fk it, even I don't believe this shit anymore."

OMEN: Ed's face in fluff is 'sign of Labour victory'

THE BURNING ISSUE!

Have chillis given Cam ring-sting?

THERE were fears for the Prime Minister's BUMHOLE last night after it emerged David Cameron LOVES anus-searing chilli!

With the Tory leader now embarking on a mammoth election campaign, aides fear he may succumb to a roasted ringpiece due to his addiction to spices.

Last week Mr Cameron told leading political journal Heat of his fave foodstuff.

Hotter

He said: "Everything with chilli in – chilli jam, chilli sauce, the hotter the better!"

It's not the first time that Cam has spoken of his love for all things spicy.

When he arrived in Mumbai last year for a trade visit, Cameron said: "I like a pretty hot curry."

CUTE Katie Lou may look like butter wouldn't melt in her mouth.

But the glamour girl has confessed she has a naughty DOMINATRIX fantasy!

The 23-year-old brunette reckons KINKY romps are much better than normal sex.

And the busty babe, from Canterbury, Kent, admits that she's always reading FILTHY novels!

Katie, an impressive 30G, confessed: "Being kinky is a whole lot more exciting.

Submissive

"I'm definitely into the whole dominatrix thing!

"I really like being in control in the bedroom.

"I recently read this book called The Diary of a Submissive, which was REALLY rude!

"It got me thinking about S&M and I would really like to try some new stuff.

"I love wearing PVC and can see myself in a pair of thigh-high boots!"

And so can we, Katie… so can we!

Dan chops off his COCK after falling for prank

PLONKER: Dan (right) sliced knob after website's cruel trick

GULLIBLE Dan Hillhouse chopped his own COCK off – after falling for a sick April Fool prank!

The 23-year-old, from Stoke-on-Trent, was left fighting for his life after losing more than two pints of blood.

Unwaged Dan read a news report on Wednesday morning last week claiming that scientists had found that a penis sliced at an angle of 27 degrees grew back THREE TIMES its original size.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Carving

But the article, on a Bulgarian sex contact website, was simply an April Fool – which they admitted at noon that same day.

Sadly, that was too late for Dan, who by then had taken a protractor and carving knife to his four-inches-on-the-bonk member.

Single Dan, who has a history of substance abuse, managed to call an ambulance before he then slipped into unconsciousness.

Surgeons reattached the sliced manhood and Dan now faces an agonising three-week wait until he finds out if the graft has been successful.

AS OIL FORTUNE HEIR DISCOVERED DEAD WITH TATTERED ARSEHOLE, SUNDAY Sport INVESTIGATES...

DEATH BY BUMMING

BLUNT FORCE TRAUMA: The late Andrew Getty

THE 47-year-old heir to one of America's greatest oil fortunes was found dead on Tuesday with severe ARSE INJURIES.

Los Angeles Police were called to the Hollywood Hills home of Andrew Getty, grandson of oil tycoon J Paul Getty, at around 2pm after receiving a call from the man's ex-girlfriend.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Paramedics who arrived on the scene found Getty unconscious and naked from the waist down, bleeding from a "traumatic injury to the rectal area" apparently caused by blunt-force trauma.

While Getty's ex-girlfriend was initially detained as a person of interest, the LA County Coroner announced Tuesday night that it appears the party-loving heir died of either natural causes or a bizarre accident.

Sources added that investigators do not believe the woman was involved in Getty's death.

But Getty is not the first person to die after apparently being bummed to death.

Sunday Sport looked into the anals – sorry, annals – of this terrible way to go...

STUART LUBBOCK

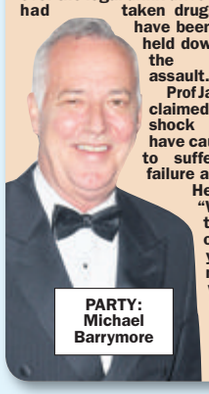
STUART was found floating in Michael Barrymore's swimming pool, the victim of a serious sexual assault shortly before his death, an inquest heard.

He'd sustained appalling internal injuries during a drug-fuelled party at the entertainer's house.

A pathologist suggested Mr Lubbock – who was three times over the legal drink drive limit and had taken drugs – may have been forcibly held down during the alleged assault.

Prof Jack Crane claimed that the shock could have caused him to suffer heart failure and die.

He said: "We have the death of a young man which, in my view, is not clear-cut.



PARTY: Michael Barrymore

APPALLING INJURIES: Lubbock

"The injuries this young man suffered were very severe and I do not believe they were the result of a consensual sexual act – that is why, in my report, I've said they were the result of a serious sexual assault.

"I do not rule out the possibility of asphyxiation or cardiac arrest occurring during some sort of non-consensual sexual act."

In 2007, Barrymore and two other men were told that they would not face charges for the events that occurred. The case was left open.

NIGEL WILLIS

A JOBLESS man died after a dildo became lodged in his body and was too embarrassed to see a doctor, an inquest was told.

Nigel Willis, 50, could not remove the sex toy and spent five days lying on the sofa, unable to get up because of the pain, at a house he shared with his elderly mother in Forest Hill, south-east London.

A friend begged him to get help, and he eventually went to University Hospital Lewisham suffering from septic shock.

Southwark Coroner's Court heard surgeons managed to remove the vibrator, but he died two months later.

The coroner said: "This is a sad case. It appears a foreign object had become stuck in the lower part of his bowel and had been there for a number of days."

She added that Mr Willis was left "fighting for his life" over the ensuing days, and that "The main cause of death clearly is just the abdomen injury."

The coroner ruled Mr Willis died as a result of an accident.

TOM WHITING

DEATH by bumming is nothing new.

On March 13, 1892, Tom Whiting died in Worcester Infirmary having hurt himself while working as a gardener.

The previous day he had walked home from work. He said he was in agony but was reluctant to speak about his injury.

Finally, he told his mother that he'd accidentally sat on a broom handle (such as the one pictured).

When the doctor finally examined Tom he found that something had penetrated his rectum, and arranged for him to be taken to hospital.

By the time he arrived, Tom was seriously ill and died soon afterwards.

At his inquest, it came out that Tom had given several explanations for his injury.

As well as the broom story, he had also claimed to have sat on a nail and to have slipped arse-first onto a spike while climbing railings.

The inquest jury returned a verdict that Tom had died of rectal injury, though said that there was insufficient evidence as to how the injury had occurred.

DEATH SWEEP: Tom 'had broom handle up arse'

KENNETH PINYAN

IN 2005, Kenneth Pinyan, a Boeing aircraft engineer of Gig Harbor, Washington state, died from injuries received during anal sex with a STALLION.

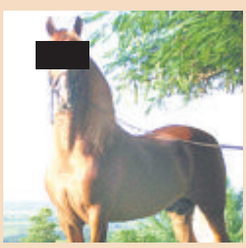
During the sex act, filmed by pal James Tait, Pinyan suffered a perforated colon from being shafted by the horse and later died of it.

Prosecutors determined that the horse had not been injured by being allowed to engage in sex in this manner.

According to the Medical Examiner's Office, Pinyan "died of acute peritonitis due to perforation of the colon", and it was ruled accidental.

Pinyan was concerned about appearing in a hospital with an unusual internal injury and the effect on his security clearance as an engineer for Boeing, so apparently refused his friends' urging to go to the hospital for several hours.

Soon after he got to the emergency room, he was dead.



FILMED ACT: Pinyan's pal James Tait

Tait, 54, was charged with criminal trespassing, because the owners of the farm they were on were not aware that the men entered the property to engage in bestiality.

JOHN KEARSLEY

UNLUCKY John was wearing his replica Newcastle United kit when he was bummed to death by a zebra while on safari.

John, 38, was enjoying a 12-day trip in the Tanzanian bush with wife Doreen to celebrate their 10th wedding anniversary.

But when John MOONED at a male zebra, the stripes on his top baffled the randy beast. John, who had drunk "many lagers" never stood a chance against the striped equine's two-foot-long cock.

The story – a Sunday Sport exclusive – made headlines around the world.

Wife Doreen of Longbenton, North Tyneside, told an inquest: "The daddy zebra looked up, must have mistaken him for a mummy zebra and ran towards John at quite a gallop. You should have seen the size of its cock. It were on bonk."

An expert told the inquest a zebra's erect penis would do "irreparable damage" to the human rectum and death would without emergency surgery.

A misadventure verdict was given.

High street tugger 'too pissed' to recall flash

A DRUNK masturbated while walking down a busy main road – stopping to LEER at two women on the way.

Michael Bajek, 29, exposed himself in public before walking towards a pub.

When he walked past the ladies in West Marketgait, Dundee, he carried on tugging while turning back to look at them.

Depute fiscal Kirsten Thomson told Dundee Sheriff Court that Bajek was caught after police CCTV operators spotted him.

Miss Thomson said: "Officers continued to watch on CCTV for approximately five minutes.

"He is clearly seen walking down the street and clearly masturbating.

"He walked towards West Bar where there are two females."

Officers attended and traced Bajek, at which time he was still exposing himself.

The first-time offender, of Dundee, pleaded guilty to a charge of public indecency committed on March 14.

Douglas Williams, defending, said: "He remembers nothing of it, as he was drunk."

He will be sentenced next month.

Jesus freak's tomb ordeal

A RELIGIOUS nut got pals to shut him in a home-made tomb on Good Friday so he could re-create Our Lord Jesus' resurrection on Easter Day.

But rather than the three days described in scripture, Dwayne Grant of Crewe, Cheshire, lasted just three MINUTES before he began hammering on the lid of the plywood and sheet metal sarcophagus.

Dwayne, 23 (above), said: "It was really dark in there. I was terrified. I thought spending three days in the tomb – like Lord Jesus – would make me feel closer to the Lord, and that.

"As it turned out, I wet my pants a little bit."

A pal said: "He's not quite the full shilling. Can you say that, these days?"

ODD Bruce Patterson, 34, was rushed to hospital with "rectal discomfort" – after he inserted NINE Cadbury's Creme Eggs up his backside.

IMPRESSED: Glenda says Holpin was a proper gent after drunken scuttling

POUNDED: Glenda got a seeing-to round the back of cut-price store by Holpin

By NEIL GOODWIN
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

A JOBLESS alcoholic who boasts of fathering 40 children by 20 women is a "kind and considerate lover who knows how to treat a lady".

That's the glowing verdict of Glenda Davies, who was romanced by shameless Mike Holpin round the back of a cut-price superstore.

Holpin, 56, caused Middle England to erupt last week when he was branded Britain's most feckless father.

The layabout, of Ebbw Vale in South Wales, said: "I'll never stop having children. Never stop. In the Bible, God says go forth and multiply. I'm doing what God wants."

Fertile

He was the subject of a Channel 5 documentary last week called 40 Kids By 20 Women.

Mr Holpin, who lives in a council house and claims benefits, said he was a changed man who no longer drank alcohol. But he still wants more children.

He added: "I'm as fertile as sin. I don't believe in contraception and I love sex. Most of my kids have gone through the care system."

But whatever his failings as a father, Holpin is an accomplished lover, according to former squeeze Glenda, 47.

The unemployed mother-of-six said: "We'd been sharing a can of cider by the bins in the shopping centre and we got quite fruity.

"A few minutes later he was giving me one behind Poundland. He was proper good at it, although he weren't proper on bonk on account of all the cider he'd supped.

"He was a real gent, though. Wiped the mess of my snatch afterwards and everything."

WALKING DEAD GOOD SHOT

Sheriff Rick is show's top zombie slaying character

ZOMBIE slaying sheriff Rick Grimes has been crowned the undisputed KILLER of TV's The Walking Dead.

One keen fan, with clearly far too much time on his hands, has analysed EVERY episode from all five series of the cult undead programme.

And it's tough ex-cop Rick, played by Brit actor Andrew Lincoln, 41, who rules the roost when it comes to on-screen slayings.

He's managed to rack-up a whopping 154 kills – 137 zombies and 17 humans!

Meanwhile Daryl – aka thesp Norman Reedus, 46 – is runner-up with 149 kills, having topped 141 walkers and 8 humans.

These characters complete the Top Five:

Artist gets naked for no-clothes shopping

A MODEL and artist who wanted to get the naked truth about people's reactions to nudity found out by going on a walkabout – completely STARKERS.

Paula Brindisi, 30, stripped off in the Argentinian capital of Buenos Aires and showed off her assets as a photographer pal snapped her going about her day-to-day business in front of gobsmacked locals.

The model – who was arrested in 2005 after stripping off with three men, but later cleared after the judge ruled she was working on an artistic project – said she came up with the idea after seeing people walking around naked in Barcelona, Spain.

She said: "It's basically a photographic project that started in Barcelona and then continued in Buenos Aires.

"It picks up the reactions that people have when seeing someone naked, doing the same things as people wearing clothes.

"With a normal attitude, without being sexual, it has an artistic outcome.

"It expresses the reaction of people – it ridicules this sensation that people have in seeing someone naked."

LIFE OF GRIME: Sport babe (right) features in new video

Topless babe is a hit in grime star's new vid

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

SUNDAY Sport stunna Rae has snagged herself yet another top-rated gig – appearing in a new music video with grime maestro Lethal Bizzle.

Rae appears with fellow beauty Katya Sanchez soaping up a Ferrari in the promo for the 30-year-old musician's latest single Fester Skank.

But Lethal is not Rae's only big-name pal.

Earlier this year the babe, from Manchester, appeared in a vid relaunching the controversial comic creation Dapper Laughs.

Her stunning curves are attracting a lot of attention on the Fester Skank video, which is posted on YouTube.

One YouTube user commented simply: "Cor!"

While everyone could admire 30E-24-34 Rae and Katya, the attractions of grime are maybe less obvious.

The lyrics to Fester Skank include the lines: "You might see me in a Lambo, Camo snapback, Rambo, 500 horses, Django, 2 2 chicken, Nando, You might see me in a Rari, Old school fella, Atari, It's a new dance, no tango, Anywhere I go, I make the gang go…"

Music historian Geoff Hollins said: "This is English grime at its purest – absolute gibberish."

Lethal – real name Maxwell Ansah – certainly has an eye for red-hot talent. In 2012, we caught up with the star at the glittering Shaftas – the Oscars of the British porn industry.

COCK GEAR!

Stars lined up for porn orgy

TOP Gear stars Jeremy Clarkson, James May and Richard Hammond have been offered an exciting new job opportunity – as PORN STARS!

Leading grot producers TVX are working on a new ORGY flick – called On That Bombshell – and are hoping to feature the petrolheads revving through 15 porn babes, including Rebecca More.

Fans of the BBC motoring show have reacted with some dismay after Clarkson, 54, was sacked following a "fracas" involving Oisin Tymon.

It's thought May and Hammond are unlikely to carry on with the show without the third member of their laddish triumvirate.

A spokesman for TVX said: "Clarkson, Hammond and May are the most iconic trio in TV history – the BBC are crackers to break up their winning formula.

By BARNEY SAMUELS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

"But the Beeb's loss could be our gain. We could sell a Top Gear-themed porn movie all over the world.

"Of course, we couldn't call it Top Gear – or anything like that. The BBC lawyers would shit out writs if we tried that."

A source close to Clarkson said he would be "unlikely" to respond positively to the TVX offer.

Meanwhile, the Top Gear trio WILL appear together again soon – on stage for a series of live shows.

The gigs will be stripped of all BBC branding and will be called Clarkson, Hammond and May Live.

The first live show will take place in Belfast on May 22.

Vodka binge man smashes court sh*tter

A DEFENDANT who drank VODKA to calm his nerves before court ended up necking too much – and smashing a public TOILET.

Magistrates heard how Naheem Gorsi was so drunk he crashed into the public lavatory at the court in Burnley, Lancs, smashing it into three pieces.

Jobless Gorsi, 34, had been drawing attention to himself in the waiting room because of the state he was in.

He went to use the toilet and a security guard later found the loo in bits on the floor.

The defendant, who had been due at a fines court over a drink driving conviction, ended up back before the bench for a further hearing, where he admitted damage.

Gorsi, of Nelson, Lancs, was ordered to pay £300 compensation.

Monkey's train revenge attack

A VIGILANTE monkey is attacking train drivers after its brother was run over by a locomotive.

Three engine drivers have been bitten by the primate in the last week and unions want armed guards to be posted on trains.

A railway official in West Champaran district, Bihar state, India, said: "Last week, a monkey was run over by a goods train near the Valmiki Nagar Train Station. Since then, his avenger has been busy.

"Another goods train driver attacked by the monkey flashed a distress message on his walkie talkie to the station staff to rescue him."

MONEY FOR OLD GROPE: Couple are secret porn stars

AT RUT: Marjorie and Kyle in action

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A RANDY 92-year-old and her toyboy lover, 31, who appeared on a Channel Five documentary last week are in fact secret PORN STARS, Sunday Sport can exclusively reveal.

Marjorie McCool has been dating Kyle Jones for six years and appeared on the troubling inter-generational sex investigation 50 Shades of Granny on the lowbrow telly channel.

Marjorie told viewers: "At my age, to feel sexy, to be told that you are, is probably the best thing in the world.

"The first time Kyle came over we went to the bedroom."

Kyle openly admits that he has a fascination for sex with elderly women, a perversion known as gerontophilia by psychiatrists.

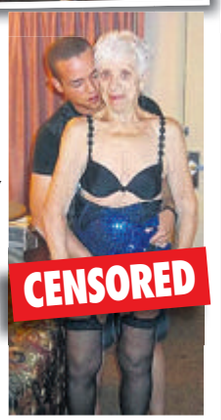
But the pair DIDN'T reveal that they are secret adult movie stars who cash in by filming their ungodly coupling.

The footage contains acts that are to upsetting to describe in a family newspaper, including:

- Deep-throat ORAL
- Doggie-style sex
- Facial COMPLETION, and even
- Taboo ANAL

One hardened Sunday Sport veteran FAINTED when shown the video of Florida-based Kyle and Marjorie at rut.

The couple also made no mention of their kinky sideline when they were interviewed by This Morning hosts Phillip Schofield and Holly Willoughby last year.



Kyle told the ITV pair: "Everyone has their thing that they like. It's hard to explain what visually attracts me to Marjorie, but I like the platinum hair, I like the skin, I like the features."

Boffins find benchmark for drunks on train tracks

SCIENTISTS in Japan have discovered why people fall onto railway tracks when they are DRUNK.

It had previously been assumed that drunkards walked too close to the platform edge and toppled onto the tracks.

But experts working for the West Japan Railway Co. found that most people fall onto tracks when they stand up from a platform bench and stumble forward off the edge.

The research used security cameras to monitor drunks in 136 incidents over a period of two years in the busy cities of Osaka, Kyoto and Kobe.

The footage revealed that 89 per cent of the incidents occurred when a pissed-up passenger attempted to get up from a bench facing the tracks or to stand upright after leaning against a wall.

Unbalanced, the person then tended to lean forward and their momentum took them to the edge of the platform and, on many occasions, onto tracks.

According to Japan's transport ministry, there were 221 incidents of Japanese people – very hard working but notorious soaks – falling off platforms in 2013.

Raging bull loses willy!

A BULL with huge genitals has had its COCK lopped off after angry neighbours complained!

As Sunday Sport reported last week, locals in Hurricane, Utah, were up in arms after Stephen Ward – owner of Barista's Restaurant – erected a giant fibreglass bull with a large cock on the roof.

Residents immediately opposed his installation, saying the restaurant is opposite a school.

Ward initially refused to remove the statue, and claimed complaints were against HIM and not the statue, adding: "If I put Pinocchio up there, its nose would be 'too big'. It's not the bull. It's not the restaurant. They don't like me."

But last week Ward finally decided to remove the bull's oversized penis, but denies his decision was influenced by locals, saying: "I decided it would look better without the weenie."

TARGET: Lovely Michelle endured a torrent of tawdriness

GORGEOUS Michelle Keegan has been subjected to a deluge of off-colour filth via the website of Britain's most stuck-up newspaper.

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

Readers of the snooty Daily Mail website bombarded pretty Michelle, 27, with suggestive comments and tawdry lewdness in a comments section of an article in which the former Coronation Street beauty plugged some fake tan product.

Fit

The star, who is a spokesmodel for Garnier Ambre Solaire No Streaks Bronzer Self Tan range, revealed the regime that keeps her "fit, healthy and glowing from the inside out".

But the happy tone of the blatant advertising plug was soiled by many of the remarks posted by readers.

One slavered: "My tongue would get a workout with her."

Another reader, apparently from Manchester, salivated: "Outstanding looking woman and you just know she is outstanding in the sack."

In reference to Michelle's stated fondness for protein shakes, yet another reader commented: "She can have one of my protein shakes any day" – a clear and revolting reference to SEMEN.

A pal of the soon-to-be-married star of new BBC series Ordinary Lies said: "Thankfully, Michelle is a woman of the world and knows she will be subjected to this sort of bawdiness."

Despite maintaining a Hyacinth Bucket-like primness, the Daily Mail website has of late attracted some rather seedy followers, possibly due to its publishing of "all-grown-up" pictures of nubile teenagers.

GEORGIA BUM SNIFF HELL

FOMER Corrie beauty Georgia May Foote has been bombarded with ARSE-SNIFFING filth after making an innocent comment on social media.

The 24-year-old – who played Katy Armstrong on the soap until earlier this year – posted the words "spend my life sat in my car".

But rather than sympathise with her predicament, fellow Twitter users waded in with suggestions that a gentleman would hesitate to make to his wife, never mind a complete stranger.

Someone called Bill Peters drooled: "I spend my life hoping to sniff your car seat one day."

Aaron Stockley-Isted leered: "You can sit on my face instead."

Another user, under the pseudonym Messenger of Truth was even more blunt, with: "Can you spend your life sat on my cock instead?"

A pal of Georgia said: "This sort of filth makes me want to vomit. Where are the manners of these vile people? Their mothers should be ashamed."

DEANO ON SUNDAY

I'd like to take the pee out of Emilia

GORGEOUS Silent Witness star Emilia Fox has revealed how she drank her own pee in the Costa Rican jungle during a programme she was making with Bear Grylls.

I think it is a disgrace that Emilia was forced to drink her own sparkling, warm ladytinkle.

May I put it on record that if she's ever in that position again, I will happily drink it for her...

DAMN! This election is so DULL

MASSDULLNESS: Party leaders are a big turn-off

BORED of the election yet?

I am. And I'm that very odd kind of person who thinks that politics is interesting.

I didn't even watch the leaders' debate on Thursday night.

What have we had so far in the campaign?

Some very rich people have declared that Labour would be bad for the country (for that read "Bad for our bank balances").

There's also been a lot of uproar about Labour's plan to ban things called zero-hours contracts.

This is controversial as some Labour MPs and Labour councils employ people on zero-hours contracts.

Do you know what they are? Me neither. And, quite frankly, I couldn't be arsed finding out.

The Tories' Big Idea is allowing people to buy their own council houses.

Not a bad innovation – in 1979 when Mrs Thatcher came up with it. Is it really the case that 35 years on, they've got nothing better?

Nutters

UKIP showed some early promise but they seem to be disappearing under their own nutters.

As for the Scotch and Welsh nationalists, what the pissing fk were they doing on the leaders' debate? They are not UK parties.

Are they just thrown in with the hope that a few more Welsh people and Scots will watch?

I've no idea what the turnout will be for the election but my guess is low.

That's because politics is dull, the people who run the parties are weird and the issues they're fighting over are tedious.

Ah well, we've only got to put up with it until May 7.

DAVID and Kathleen Long from Scunthorpe (left) have won £1million in the EuroMillions lottery for the SECOND time in 20 months – beating odds of more than 283 billion to one.

I'm delighted for them.

Absolutely fking delighted!

Ice work if you can get it!

OLYMPIC stars Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean have a new TV show. Council estate ice skating.

It's not too far away from Alan Partridge's Inner City Sumo, is it?

Monkey tennis, anyone?

FAST & FURIOUS BABES NAKED

Babes from new movie stripped

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

THOSE of you heartbroken at Jeremy Clarkson's fall from grace can get your fix of high-octane action with the release of yet another Fast and Furious movie.

We're now up to part SEVEN of the franchise, which stars shouty Americans and fast cars.

But the babes in the movie have even better bodywork than the motors and thankfully, many of them have either got their teats out on film or posed in VERY revealing outfits.

Fast & Furious 7 is just as explosive as the previous six films, say movie buffs.

Brit Jason Statham, 47, returns, playing a baddie and other stars include Vin Diesel, Ludacris and Dwayne Johnson.

Paul Walker – who tragically died in a car accident in 2013 – returns via the magic of cinema as Brian O'Connor as he and his crew set-out on "one last ride".

One fan said last night: "Hur, hur. Cars. JUSTICE FOR CLARKSON!"

Lags' fury as beauty escapes their clutches

A FULL-SCALE riot broke out in an Italian prison after news emerged that Amanda "Foxy Knoxy" Knox had been formally cleared of murder and would NOT be returning to jail.

Lesbian lags at Capanne jail, near Perugia, had been "openly drooling" at the prospect of 27-year-old Knox returning to custody to complete a 28-year sentence for the murder of Brit Meredith Kercher.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

But Italy's supreme Court of Cassation last week overturned Knox's conviction – and that of her ex-lover Raffaele Sollecito for the 2007 killing.

It provoked a "tsunami of disappointment" among Sapphic crims at Capenne – disappointment that soon boiled over into violence.

A prison source said: "The girls thought the Court of Cassation would confirm Knox's conviction, which would set in motion her extradition from the USA to Italy.

"Needless to say, a gorgeous bird like Amanda would be a welcome addition to any women's prison. During the four years she spent in jail before being granted an appeal, many tried to turn her, without success.

"Now they'll never get the chance. No wonder they ran amok."

The decision by the Court of Cassation brings an end to an eight-year legal battle that began with the death of Meredith.

Drug dealer and bar owner Rudy Guede, pleaded guilty to Meredith's murder.

He was sentenced to 30 years in prison, though his sentence was reduced to 16 years on appeal.

'Nude tosser' Dick may be serial flasher

A MAN called DICK has been arrested on suspicion of being a serial FLASHER.

Michael Gordon Dick (above), is possibly connected to a number of different indecent exposure reports, mostly between the last week of November and the first week of December 2014.

Dick was finally caught last week when he was arrested in Gresham, Oregon, by cops investigating claims of a naked man masturbating.

Investigators said the pervert's method was similar to previous reports, where the man would drive past women who are walking or working in their gardens, then would get out of his truck and be naked.

After Dick was nicked, cops searched his house in the town and said they found evidence – including a Chevy S-10 truck used in previous incidents.

Dick, a registered sex offender, must answer public indecency charges.

Sherman 'had tank in public'

A MAN called Michael SHERMAN was caught having a public WANK.

Cops were called to a report of an 'indecent exposure in progress'.

A woman told police that she and her daughter were walking on a parkland bike trail in Glen Burnie, Maryland, when they noticed an adult male sitting on a park bench.

When they approached, the victim noticed that the man was fully exposed and appeared to be furiously masturbating while humming the Van Halen song Jump.

Based on the description provided by the victims, officers found and detained a man shortly after arriving on scene.

Michael James Sherman (above), 50, has been charged with indecent exposure.

Editor's note: Sherman is Cockney rhyming slang for masturbation: Sherman tank = wank.

WHY JESS IS TV'S NEW BIG THING!

WHITE HEAT

INSIDE NUMBER 9

NUMBER 9 DREAM TEAM: Comedy cast with Jessica

FORTITUDE

By SIMON DEAN simon@sundaysport.co.uk

FANS of The League of Gentlemen and the even odder Psychoville now have another creation from the warped pens of Reece Shearsmith and Steve Pemberton.

The first episode of BBC2's Inside Number 9 is set on a train, starred posh Jack Whitehall – Hayley out of Coronation Street – and the man who used to play a simpleton on the Halifax adverts.

It also starred Jessica Gunning who, as well as being in Sky Atlantic smash Fortitude, also got her kit off for the poncey, lefty BBC drama White Heart.

Jess is from Holmfirth – home of Last of the Summer Wine.

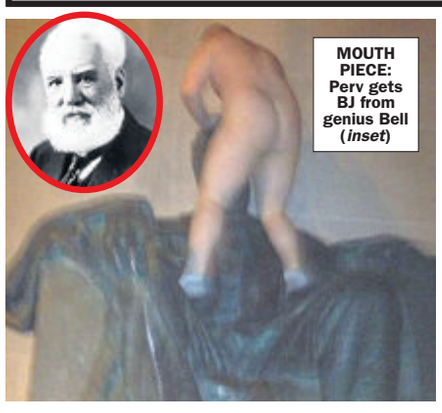
A pal said: "She's a big star – in all ways!"



MOUTH PIECE: Perv gets BJ from genius Bell (inset)

Where's he got his BELL-end?

THIS fiend insulted the memory of telephone inventor Alexander Graham Bell – by trying to get a BLOWJOB from his statue!

Edinburgh-born Bell – who invented the blower in 1875 – has a statue erected in his honour in Ontario, Canada.

But this drunkard decided to erect himself in Bell's honour, climb up and shove his manhood in the statue's face.

Canada's police, the Mounties, are investigating the outrage and calling for witnesses or anyone who recognises the chubby pervert from his dimpled arse to give them a...er, bell.

DEBBI DIXON

AGE: 20
FROM: Stoke
STUDYING: Geology
UNIVERSITY: University of Nottingham
FAVE FOOD: Pizza
FAVE DRINK: Prosecco
FAVE FILM: Under The Skin
FAVE ACTOR: Woody Harrelson

HELEN JOHNS

AGE: 19
FROM: Nottingham
STUDYING: Maths
UNIVERSITY: University of Nottingham
FAVE FOOD: Nandos chicken
FAVE DRINK: Vodka diet coke
FAVE FILM: Nightcrawler
FAVE ACTOR: Jake Gyllenhaal

FIRST-TIME SEX

HELEN: Mine was really nice. It was in a hotel and it was on Valentine's Day. It was with my boyfriend and it was good because it was with him.

Even though I was comfortable, the sex did not live up to my expectations. You watch films and you think sex is going to be like this or that and you'd both perform the same way.

It has got much better since and I love sex now.

DEBBI: I just wanted to get it over and done with. I was 16 and all my friends had already done it. I just remember laughing all the way through. I don't know why I was laughing, I must have just been nervous.

HELEN: What did he say?

DEBBI: He just asked me to stop laughing. It did not really last long and my parents were downstairs. It put me off sex for a bit, after that.

WORST EVER

HELEN: I was having sex in a park and got a bit frisky. I was underneath and rolled on to some stinging nettles and got stung all over my body.

I was in agony and we had to stop, which totally ruined it.

TURN-ONS

DEBBI: Nice shoulders and neck.

HELEN: A nice back with a small waist and large shoulders to form a triangle.

DEBBI: I also like a nice bum and when I am having sex, I like nice eyes to look in to. That's a turn-on.

HELEN: It turns me on when I can hear them breathing in my ear.

DEBBI: I like it when he kisses my neck.

HELEN: Or when he is scared to touch you for the first time even though he really wants to.

He is being cheeky and is putting his hand around your chest and then he plucks up the courage to grab your boob. That really turns me on.

WILLY SIZE

DEBBI: I think it's what he does with it. As long as a guy is comfortable and not embarrassed.

HELEN: I think it is boys who are more hung up and concerned about size and think it is a big deal.

I don't care, so long as it doesn't look like a frankfurter sausage or anything but I don't want one that has a really fat girth either.

DEBBI: So what size?

HELEN: I would say five inches.

DEBBI: I'd want at least seven.

OH-NO MOMENTS

HELEN: I have been heard but not seen. Actually, another time I was in the park I know people saw me at it, but I was drunk so I wasn't bothered!

I have also had sex in a toilet. People heard us but didn't see us.

DEBBI: My boyfriend's mum caught us at it. She did not actually walk in but she heard us from outside his bedroom door once.

She shouted at us to stop banging the bed and that it was time for me to come and watch I'm A Celebrity… with her downstairs.

So we all had to sit there and watch it – which was very embarrassing.

FAKING IT

HELEN: We have all done it. Any girl who says they haven't is lying.

DEBBI: But if I don't have an orgasm for real, I get annoyed.

If I have and he is still going I will scream louder so he hurries up. I've found that screaming always works.

HELEN: Faking is just to make them feel better. I don't do it too often and I have not done it for a while.

My boyfriend is very good so I don't really have to, thank God.

SPIT OR SWALLOW?

DEBBI: I spit.

HELEN: Me too.

DEBBI: I hate the taste. I feel like I am going to be sick. Sometimes when I am getting into the mood I think I might but I never go through with it.

I always put it in the side of my cheek and move my tongue out of the way so I can't taste it properly.

Then I spit it out, when they are not looking.

HELEN: It depends where I am and if it is convenient to spit it out. The taste doesn't bother me – unless they have had a curry and a load of beers.

ONE-OFFS

DEBBI: It's each to their own. If they want to do it, that's fine. I have never had a one-night stand, but I don't think anything bad of my flat mates who have them all the time.

A one-night stand in my eyes is when you have sex with them once and then don't see them again. Personally, I've never done that.

HELEN: I think I've always been in a relationship, which is why it's never happened for me.

FANTASIES

DEBBI: I would like to have sex in a Jacuzzi.

HELEN: On a plane for me – I'd love to join the Mile High Club.

BUM FUN

DEBBI: I've not done it yet, but me and my boyfriend have talked about it.

HELEN: I've done it once but it does not float my boat. I don't think I would do it again unless I was tipsy!

OUTDOOR ACTION

DEBBI: I have had sex in a park, on a balcony and on a beach. It's better when you are in a hot country. I like the feeling of warm air on my naked body – especially having sex on the beach, at night. You can listen to the swell of the sea and just let yourself go.

HELEN: That sounds really amazing! I'd love to try that some day.

Welcome to the world famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice or experience of our own Agony Angels! This week Kyla Cole has been reading your letters. Here's her advice...

Dear Kyla,

I BUMPED into my best mate's wife while I was out in town last week.

I gave her a lift home and she invited me in.

She was looking really good in a mini-skirt and tight top.

As we chatted it soon became clear that she wanted me to shag her. She started telling me how her hubby hardly goes near her and that she had just bought a new vibrator to satisfy herself with.

I was getting really turned on, so we started kissing and she unzipped my pants and grabbed hold of my throbbing cock.

I pushed her head down and she sucked me off.

After I came down her throat I eased off her wet knickers and started licking her love-lips.

She was moaning as I grabbed hold of her 36Ds.

After she had both orgasmed we went to her bedroom.

She went to her wardrobe and came back with some handcuffs.

After she put them on she said she wanted to be taken from behind.

I started pounding away and then noticed her new, silver dildo on the bed so I launched this up her arse.

Now she's gone all mental and wants to leave her husband and live with me.

I'm worried that my mate will find out about our affair.

What do you think?

TF, Leeds

Kyla says...

TELL your mate she seduced you and hope for the best.

New barmaid pulled more than a pint!

Dear Kyla,

A COUPLE of weeks ago, a brand new busty barmaid started work at my local pub.

She's in her mid-40s and is a typical pint-puller – all tight skirts, low-cut tops and a face caked in make-up.

I'm in the boozer most nights for a couple of drinks and the "crack" with some of the locals – anything to get away from the nagging wife for a few hours.

One night, it was a bit quiet and as she was pulling my second pint I realised I was the only customer in the place.

She had a wicked grin on her face – and she told me to watch the bar for a minute while she went to the front door of the pub and locked it.

I told her she'd get a bollocking from the landlord but she said he'd gone away for the night and wouldn't be back until the early hours.

Then she grabbed my wrist and led me upstairs to the private quarters.

She said it was obvious that I wanted a shag and as she was feeling horny too, there was no point in shilly-shallying about.

She leaned forward so her boobs spilled out of her top and rubbed them in my face.

At the same time, I felt her fingers unzipping my pants and she pulled out my cock and began wanking it quite vigorously.

Then she fell backwards on to a sofa with her skirt pulled up and her panties down and skillfully guided my knob into her pussy.

I hardly had time to do serious shagging before I'd shot my load.

She cried out in ecstasy – but wasn't satisfied with that.

Soon she was sucking me hard again and I had to f her twice more before she'd let me go!

Now she wants me to leave my wife and move in with her.

But I could never dump my missus for such a brassy trollop.

What should I do?

JW, Notts

Letter of the day

Kyla says...

FIND yourself another pub.

Dear Kyla,

MY dad always told me to steer clear of bad boys, so he went nuts when I brought home a biker recently.

He's very artistic and sensitive to my needs – plus he's got a massive cock. But my dad hates him. Help!

JG, Manchester

Kyla says...

DON'T shag him at your dad's house.

Dear Kyla,

MY bird's best mate has just split up with her long term boyfriend.

She's really fit – with a great pair of boobs.

I saw her in the pub a few days ago and she said that she would like to have sex with me until she finds a new boyfriend.

I'm tempted, as she said she wouldn't tell my bird.

What do you think?

LS, south London

Kyla says...

IF you can trust her then shag her. But it sounds a bit dodgy.

Dear Kyla,

JUST after returning from a recent sun holiday, my wife started walking about topless in our back garden – to show off her tan.

I was fine about her getting her norks out on holiday but back in Blighty is different.

Our garden is over-looked by a few others and I'm sure I've seen neighbours' curtains twitching every time she goes out there.

And I reckon a few local blokes must be peeping at her in the all-together – as she jiggles about in the garden with her boobs out.

What's more, she seems to enjoy the attention and spends ages rubbing cream into her massive 34DD boobs.

Now she wants me to shag her in the garden – but I can't get the neighbours out of my mind.

DF, Kent

Kyla says...

WAIT until it's gone dark, then give her what she wants.

Kyla says...

NOW that spring is here, most British people are bursting to get outdoors and be engaged in health pursuits with the sunshine on our cheeks.

But this time of year can easily be plagued by downpours and a sudden drop in temperature – which could leave you with a nasty chill on your kidneys.

Drenching

So what to do on those days where a downpour threatens a serious drenching?

For ladies, a spot of indoor gentle lesbianism is always a good option.

As the saying goes: "April showers bring forth licking your bezzie friend's minge like a hungry puppy."

Or something like that.

BOFFINS FIND TRANNY FISH AT BOTTOM OF THE SEA

MAN-MADE pollution is causing bizarre fish which live in the deepest reaches of the sea to CHANGE SEX, boffins have found.

Even at depths of a mile beneath the surface, marine fish are becoming trannies and suffering from liver diseases, tumours and other nasty conditions as toxins make their way into the seas.

Ocean pollution generates from pesticides, fossil fuels, and agricultural and industrial waste.

Michael Kent, a professor of microbiology at Oregon State University, said: "In areas ranging from pristine, high mountain lakes of the United States to ocean waters off the coasts of France and Spain, we've now found evidence of possible human-caused pollution that's bad enough to have impacts on fish."

One of changes refers to a condition known as "intersex," where fish contain a blend of male and female sex organs.

This study was the first to discover the occurrence in deep water fish.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Intersex specimens were documented by researchers, who think that they resulted from "endocrine disrupting chemicals" that mimic estrogens – causing the sex organs to mutate.

The team studied black scabbardfish (above) among other species.

An insider said: "We have enough trouble with the trannies up here – the last thing we want is more in the depths of the ocean."

ON A CHARGE: Andy Lee is on a seven-fight winning streak

LEE: I FEEL UNBEATABLE

ANDY LEE admits being world champion and one of Ireland's biggest superstars HAS changed him – but he's still got his feet on the ground.

The Limerick man shocked the world last December when he smashed Russian star Matt Korobov to win the WBO middleweight crown.

He bids to upset the odds again when he risks all against American Peter Quillin in New York on Saturday night.

Lee says the change in him has only come as a fighter – and he can't see himself losing again, despite being an underdog.

Lee, a cousin of Tyson Fury, said: "Being champion has certainly changed me.

"My coach Adam Booth says it's the confidence you have in yourself. People always say you go to a new level and I'm seeing that.

"I can't see anybody beating me. I'm addicted to winning, to the glory of beating these guys.

"I don't see anything that Quillin can do to stop me at this stage.

"I'm at the peak of my powers. I don't see anybody stopping me."

Crack

Mandatory challenger Billy Joe Saunders was paid step-aside money to allow Lee's defence against undefeated Quillin and is assured of a July crack at the winner.

But 30-year-old Lee insists it's the Quillin fight that will launch him towards becoming one of boxing's marquee names.

Lee has lost twice in 36 fights, but is on a seven-fight winning streak since being walked down in seven rounds by Julio Cesar Chavez Jr in June 2012.

"Kid Chocolate" Quillin will be fighting in his own back yard, but Lee says he'll feel at home in the Big Apple, where there is a huge Irish population.

And Lee has promised another knockout with the trusted right hook that has been a "get out of jail card" in the past.

He added: "I have more support than he has. I've fought in New York five or six times so I'm very comfortable there.

"I don't think he's fought anyone who can punch like me. He's fought light-middleweights, smaller guys.

"This time he's fighting someone physical, who can punch as hard as him.

"I have the skill to beat him. I can outbox him for 12 rounds if I have to."

Kell of a quick turnaround!

KELL BROOK wants a quick return to action in London on May 30.

The Sheffield ace made an easy first defence of his IBF welterweight title in Sheffield eight days ago, blowing away overmatched mandatory challenger Jo Jo Dan inside four rounds.

Brook, 28, said: Last Saturday night was fantastic. Now I want to capitalise on that win.

"The leg felt great, so I want to box as soon as possible. I've told Eddie Hearn to get me out there again as soon as he can.

"I want to fight twice before the end of the summer, starting in May."

There is also talk of Brook (left) defending his title in July at Sheffield United's Bramall Lane stadium.

GOLF

Rory admits missing 'pure joy' days of playing game as a kid

RORY McILROY admits he does not love golf as much as he used to when he played with "just pure joy" as a child.

The 25-year-old, looking to complete a career grand slam at the Masters, said that the feeling of looking forward to time away from the course is something he never experienced as a kid.

"I would be dishonest if I said my love of golf now is as big as it was back then," said the world No.1.

"I still love the game, still love playing great courses and playing with my friends and my dad. I took a trip to Augusta after Doral with dad and it was just so good.

"But then I don't love golf as much as when it was just pure joy to get on the course to play.

"When I was a kid, if I spent a day away from the game, I couldn't wait to get back.

"Now I can't wait for a week off. There's just not the, 'I can't wait to get out of the house as quick as I can to get to the course' feeling.

LOST LOVE: McIlroy

Crash

"Listen, this is not a job. Let's face it, I've never done a day's work in my life.

"But it's an intense environment I play in and it's just nice to get away from it for a while.

"When I was a kid, I never, ever, wanted to get away from it."

McIlroy will head to Augusta seeking a first green jacket. He came so close in 2011, only to crash from four shots in front overnight to 10 shots behind and joint 15th with a nightmare final round 80.

The Northern Ireland glory hunter approaches the 2015 tournament with a different mindset to keep things tight.

"I have to play the par fives more efficiently," he said.

"I can reach all the par fives in two without even hitting driver. Yet maybe I have to curb my natural enthusiasm to go for pins and go for fours, not threes.

"Just one slip in concentration and you make that double bogey that really drops you down the field.

"If there's any course in the world where you need 100 per cent concentration for the four days, it's Augusta."

RUGBY UNION

EX-ALL BLACK IN SEX QUIZ

FORMER New Zealand star Mils Muliaina has been arrested on suspicion of sexual assault.

The 34-year-old, who currently plays for Connacht in the Republic of Ireland, is suspected of involvement in an incident in Cardiff last month.

He was shown on television being taken away by police after the final whistle of his team's European Challenge Cup quarter-final match at Gloucester on Friday night.

Muliaina won 100 caps as he wore the All Blacks No. 15 jersey with distinction for nine years. He retired in 2011.

Muliaina was in the Welsh capital playing for Connacht against Cardiff Blues on March 6.

Officers from South Wales Police are investigating the alleged incident.

It's a great Dom deal

RUGBY LEAGUE

WIGAN have rewarded young winger Dom Manfredi with a new four-year deal.

The academy product has scored 14 tries in 19 appearances since making his Warriors debut against Hull in 2013.

Manfredi began this season playing for Workington on dual registration, but Josh Charnley's injury gave the 21-year-old his chance at Wigan.

And he has taken it in style. His try in the Good Friday win over St Helens was his third in his last two matches.

"I am very happy to get this deal done," said Wigan head coach Shaun Wane.

"Dom is a player I really like. He works hard, gets his head down and always wants to improve.

"He's the kind of person and talent that I like to work with.

"I firmly believe he has a big future in the game."

Get Brax to basics at 25s

WE have been banging in winners galore and I'm going for the shock of all shocks at Sheffield on Tuesday in the £10,000 to-the-winner Pinpoint Health and Homecare Three Steps To Victory final.

Russanda Brax is 25/1 for this prestigious final and he is taking on Roxholme Dream the 2014 Bitch and Stayer of the year but she is not guaranteed to get a clear run and I'd not be rushing out to jump on at 4/7.

I think Russanda Brax is odds-on to lead, he's never been over a staying trip but neither had the last two winners Ballymac Eske and Hather George. Will he stay?

Exciting

I asked his trainer Elaine Parker: "Truthful answer is I don't know, we have genuinely never tried him, his mum and his sister stayed OK.

"Until we try him we just don't know but it's going to be exciting finding out."

It's a big question mark alright but if he does stay then 25/1 is a huge price. Sheffield is a track you want to be out in front, it's not the easiest place to pass.

Blonde Razor came to challenge Russanda Brax in the semi-final over 500m but Brax slammed the door on him and if he can do the same on Tuesday we stand every chance of landing this major upset.

HENLOW TONIGHT

It's the Henlow Mini Derby final tonight worth £2,500 to-the-winner. I think Aero Babooshka trained by champion trainer Mark Wallis is set to take the world of beating. She's got a fantastic draw and she seems to have taken to Henlow like a duck to water.

Toon tops in derby

YOU have to worry about the people who run footy.

Sky TV. Sorry, we mean the Premier League.

It beggars belief that such warm little tussles like the Manchester derby, the other little affair down the opposite end of the East Lancs road and even the posh boys' derby in North London are deemed fit only for lunchtime kick-offs.

The chaps might get heavily refreshed on Cheeky Vimto and run amok, you see.

So come the north-east local spat and what do they do? Four o'clock start for the hey lads, hey. Those of us stuck at Newcastle Central station, when the boys from St James's and the Stadium Of Light ask for a polite word outside, can confirm that adrenalin truly is brown.

Best bet of the weekend is there will be bouts of fisticuffs before the weekend is out but you can't get odds on that.

There are plenty of things to bet on, even though it's possible to argue that mathematically there isn't much to play for.

Sure, conventional wisdom says Sunderland have more to play for because they are embroiled in a relegation fight while Newcastle might not trouble the Champions League places but won't be frightening the Championship ranks either, come next August.

The statistic that stares you in the face is that Sunderland, despite being the weaker side on paper, have won all four of the last Mackem v Tackem hate-fests.

Perhaps they are hungrier. But these guys get so passionate about their derbies it's tough to believe any of the 22 starting players take these clashes lightly.

There is an odd coincidence at play today. Dick Advocaat takes care of the red and whites facing their bitter rivals on only his second game in charge.

So did both his predecessors Gus Poyet and Paolo Di Canio. Both enjoyed victories which were unexpected, at least according to the bookies.

Today, though, Sunderland are favourites at 6/4; Newcastle are 2/1 and the draw is 9/4.

Sensibly the best value is a tie but neither of these teams will stop before the last second and at 2s Newcastle has to be the pick. Lightening surely doesn't strike thrice, does it?

We would get into trouble from mummy and daddy for advising spread betting so please don't do it but if you have an account, leave it 10 minutes for ref Mike Dean to lose his patience and the price will come down, we would advise a buy. Currently 68 with Sporting Index.

Better still, to play safe Paddy Power go just over 3/1 (it's 16/5) that a penalty will be awarded at some stage. The boy Dean does love his whistle.

Another interesting market which catches the eye is the Man Of The Match award.

Steven Fletcher's confidence must be higher than a sniffing banker at a Christmas party after notching a treble for Scotland against Gibraltar.

He is 15/2 for the MVP tag and that makes an appeal. Even if we fancy his rivals to win. It's called hedging your bets, if not necessarily your bankers.

BETS: Penalty (16/5); Newcastle win (2/1); Steven Fletcher MotM (15/2).

IT'S MERV PAYNE WITH A FAN'S VIEW OF THE FOOTIE WEEK

England fans provide a wave of light relief

WHAT was the highlight of England's two matches last week? The convincing performance against Lithuania pushing Roy's boys closer to the Euros?

Or was it Wayne Rooney (right) nearing that Bobby Charlton scoring record? Harry Kane's quickfire goalscoring debut? A return to fitness – and goalscoring – for Andros Townsend?

Nope, none of them for me. It had to be the Twitter video doing the rounds of England's travelling fans in Turin bringing that most pathetic of football fan spectacles – the Mexican wave – to an abrupt, foul-mouthed and beans-shaking end. Brilliant.

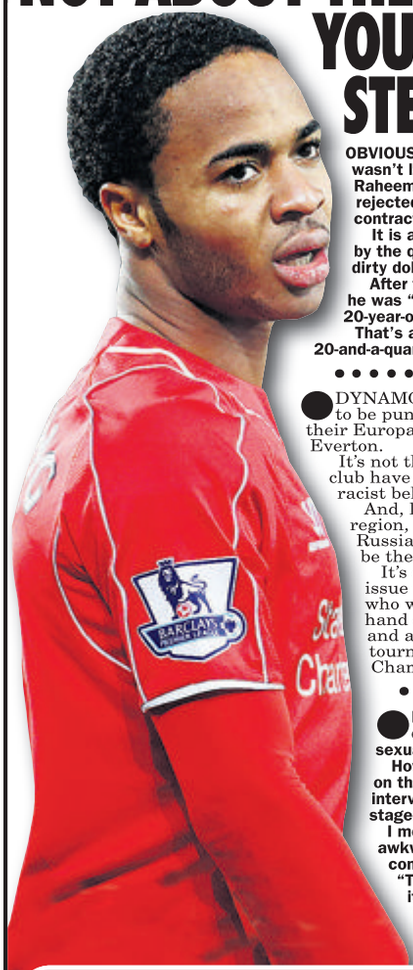
Not seen it? Just Google "England fans Mexican wave".

●I'VE got to say, I'm more than a little excited at the prospect of so many of the home nations being in with a shout of qualifying for Euro 2016.

I'm also scared shitless of the thought of a group stage defeat by Wales, Scotland or Ireland.

I still haven't properly recovered from that defeat to the Republic of Ireland in Germany 88!

NOT ABOUT THE MONEY? YOU MUST BE STER CRAZY!



OBVIOUSLY the irony of his surname wasn't lost on anyone the second Raheem Sterling announced he'd rejected a reported £100k-a-week contract offer by Liverpool.

It is a decision, he says, motivated by the quest for trophies rather than dirty dollars.

After the news broke, he insisted he was "not a money-grabbing 20-year-old".

That's absolutely right. He's 20-and-a-quarter, you know.

● DYNAMO KIEV are the latest club to be punished for racism following their Europa League match with Everton.

It's not the first time the Ukrainian club have been hit by sanctions for racist behaviour.

And, like other clubs in the region, as well as in neighbouring Russia, it almost certainly won't be the last.

It's clearly not a big enough issue for either UEFA or FIFA, who will continue to ignore it, hand out pointless punishments and award them with tournaments like the European Championships and World Cup.

● BRIGHTON'S efforts to educate their players about sexual consent is to be applauded.

However, it may have an impact on those passionate post-match interviews after the team has staged a stirring late comeback.

I mean, it could get quite awkward if one of their players comes out with the old chestnut: "This team never knows when it's beat. We never give up – we keep pressing and pressing until we get what we want..."

MERV'S FACT HUNT

LAST week I asked who was the only manager to win the European Championships for a foreign country. The answer was Otto Rehhagel, the German who led Greece to victory in 2004.

This week, can you fact hunters tell me which four Italians have scored English Premier League hat-tricks?

As usual, answer next week...

BARCLAYS PREMIER LEAGUE ALL THE LATEST NEWS ON THE REST

BELIEF: Sean Dyche

DICK DELIVERS

JUST THE TRICK FOR DICK: Advocaat is backing Steven Fletcher (inset) to bang in the goals to lift Sunderland to top-flight safety

Change is as good as a rest for Dyche

Burnley v Tottenham

Today, 1.30pm – Sky Sports 1

BURNLEY manager Sean Dyche reckons getting away from it will galvanise his players to beat relegation.

The Clarets are gearing up for the final eight games of their Premier League survival battle reinvigorated after a warm-weather training camp.

Dyche's squad – minus the four players on international duty – spent last week in Spain preparing for a run-in that begins with today's tricky visit of Tottenham.

The idea of a late-season getaway worked wonders last year, as Burnley returned to secure a promotion spot.

And Dyche is hoping for a similar boost this time.

The 43-year-old said: "Last year we found it gave the lads a change – and a change is almost as good a rest.

"We came back and we did the business by getting ourselves promoted.

"It's a different kind of challenge this time, but I have total belief we will be in the Premier League."

Tough

Tottenham manager Mauricio Pochettino fully expects Burnley to come out fighting.

Spurs still harbour ambitions of breaking into the top four following a decent run before the international break.

And Pochettino said: "Sometimes it is difficult to play a team that is playing for nothing in the middle of the table, but this will be a tough game as Burnley are fighting to stay in the Premier League.

"It will be a very difficult pitch, but we need to get the three points.

"They play in a very clear way, so we don't expect them to change the way that they play.

"They are well organised, strong, run a lot, make a lot of effort and have a very clear idea of the way that they play under their philosophy.

"It is not easy for them to stay in the Premier League, but they have to give their all and fight in every game.

"We need to give the best to win three points."

Sunderland v Newcastle

Today, 4pm – Live on Sky Sports 1

DICK ADVOCAAT has ordered his Sunderland players to treat today's derby showdown with Newcastle as a cup final.

But the 67-year-old Dutchman is placing no greater importance on this clash than any of the other seven remaining games of a campaign which is balanced on a knife-edge.

Head coach Advocaat, whose first game at the helm ended in a heartbreaking 1-0 defeat at West Ham, said: "At the beginning when I arrived, I talked to them about nine finals, and that's the way it is.

"The second final is Newcastle. I think we have to think about it in that way.

"It's a very important game to show them what we can do – and if we can get the result we want, it will give them a lift again.

"Last week, I was a little bit disappointed that we conceded a goal in the last minute against West Ham, because one point would have been a good result.

"The players understand the importance of this game – and not only this game, but every game that will come in the next weeks."

It will be Advocaat's first experience of this particular local rivalry, but by no means his first derby after travelling the world during his successful career.

Weapon

Having experienced the white heat of the Old Firm hostilities in Scotland during his spell as Rangers boss, he knows exactly what to expect, and what a weapon home advantage can be.

He said: "I know from the Rangers fans how important it is to get them behind you. They can be a really key factor in this game.

"If they stand straight from the beginning behind our club, then it will give the players a lift, there's no doubt about that."

Sunderland have managed only two goals in their last seven league outings, but Advocaat is hoping Steven Fletcher is ready to go on a scoring spree.

Fletcher grabbed a hat-trick for Scotland, albeit against Euro 2016 minnows Gibraltar.

Advocaat said: "We have to win, so we have to score goals. If you can score for Scotland you can also score for Sunderland."

MANUEL PELLEGRINI has told his Manchester City players: It is your duty to win.

The City boss is determined to ensure his side's season does not fizzle out.

The champions seem to be losing their grip on the Premier League title – but Pellegrini is not ready to hand it over to Chelsea just yet. And with the battle for top-four places intensifying, Pellegrini knows there could be an additional heavy price to pay for any further slip-ups.

The Chilean said: "I always expect to win all the games from the beginning of the season to the end. That is the mentality we must have as a big team.

"So many times I am asked after a defeat if we are obligated to win.

"We are always obligated to win. This team demands you to win every game.

"Now it is important to take it game by game and we must focus our mind on the next one at Crystal Palace."

City took some of the heat out of their recent troubles with a 3-0 defeat of 10-man West Brom in their last game and will hope to build some momentum for the run-in.

Prior to that, City had won just three games from 12 in all competitions, suffering hefty damage to their

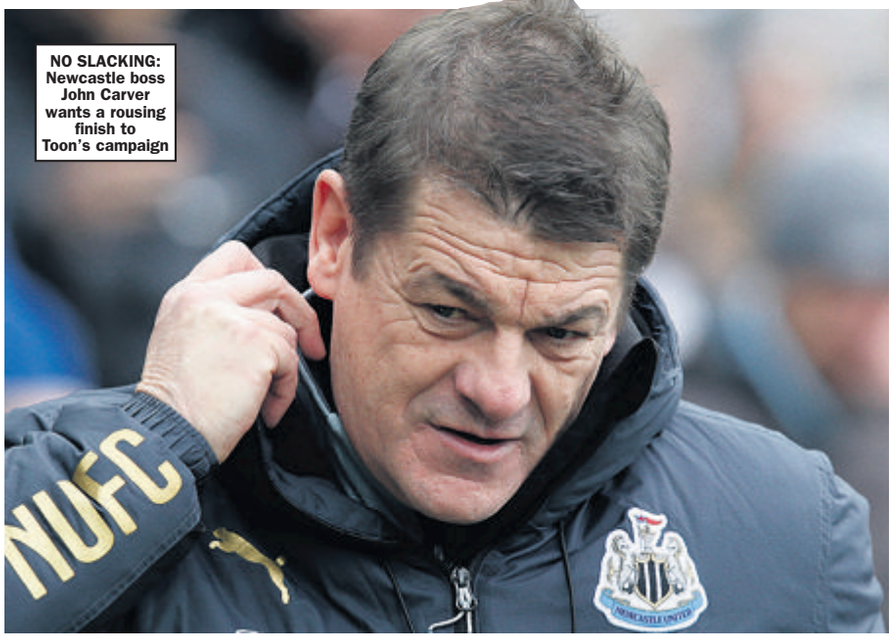
HIS FINAL WARNING

Advocaat is cup for bitter derby fight



NO SLACKING: Newcastle boss John Carver wants a rousing finish to Toon's campaign their season is not over by ending a dismal run of four successive defeats at the hands of the Black Cats.

The Toon head coach will send his team into battle at the Stadium of Light for the first time since Alan Pardew's exit.

Newcastle are in mid-table and have lost their last three games.

But Carver is adamant that no-one within the camp has shut up shop for the summer as they target a rousing end to the campaign, starting with three points on enemy soil.

"We proved against Arsenal that the season isn't over. It's the cliche of one game at a time for us," said Carver.

"This is a cup final for our fans. They'll have been talking about it in the street, at work.

"I was on the golf course and it took me six hours to complete my round because everyone wanted to talk about it. Everybody cares."

While it may also be Carver's first derby in the hot-seat, he has experienced many in the past as both a fan and a coach.

The 50-year-old added: "What I will guarantee is that any side of mine playing Sunderland will not be faulted for a lack of determination or effort because I will be driving them forward. They will know what it means.

"The good thing is that at least I know what it does mean, having been involved in so many derbies."

title bid and going out of the FA Cup and Champions League.

Pellegrini said: "I hope we can do it. We will see the way we play.

Frustration

"The way we finished against West Brom is the way we must continue.

"It is not easy to make a clear analysis because they played with one player less, but I hope in these eight games we will continue playing that way."

International breaks can be a frustration for managers. In City's case midfielder Yaya Toure played twice for Ivory Coast, despite club fears over his fitness after missing the West Brom game with an Achilles injury.

Captain Vincent Kompany (right) was also sent off while representing Belgium.

But Pellegrini said: "It is important for the national squad to have players to play.

"We cannot do anything here at the club. It is not the best thing, but you know that before you start."

While I was doing that job, I used to have a recurring nightmare about fruit machines.

My girlfriend tried to help by giving me a nudge and holding me – but that only ended up making things worse.

I also signed up to the local cricket team, and during one particular match, the Indian guy on our team had to go to hospital after he was hit in the head by a bouncer.

I told my girlfriend about the unfortunate incident and she asked: "Was he hit in the temple?" How much of a stupid racist is she? He was hit on the cricket pitch, not in the temple.

Though she did start to get a bit pissed off with me this week when I told her to get dressed as I had a deal for "two courses for a tenner".

She didn't realise I wasn't taking her for dinner but wanted her to caddy for me on both golf courses.

LATE SHOW: Ishmael Miller

DERBY RIVALS LEAVE IT LATE

Sheff Wed	1
Huddersfield	1

TWO goals in the last four minutes saw this Yorkshire derby end all square.

Wednesday sub Sergiu Bus looked to have won it in the 86th minute – but there was still time for Ishmael Miller to secure a point for Town 60 seconds from time.

Huddersfield's Marnick Vermijl sent in an early low cross which evaded everyone, and Wednesday striker Caolan Lavery fired in a fierce angled shot which went over.

The hosts had another chance when Lewis McGugan hit one from the edge of the area that went wide.

Huddersfield responded with Joel Lynch firing in a shot on the turn which forced a near-post save from Keiren Westwood.

Just before the break, the visitors carved out another good opening when, following a scramble, David Edgar's shot was cleared off the line by Vermijl.

Slotted

Six minutes after the restart, Wednesday's Atdhe Nuhiu looked certain to score when he rounded keeper Alex Smithies and rolled the ball towards the net – only to see Lynch race back to clear off the line.

Lavery shot wide after losing his balance and then went down inside the area with Reece James in close attention, but ref Mark Haywood was unimpressed.

Then it was time for the managers to earn their corn as Wednesday boss Stuart Gray brought on Bus, while opposite number Chris Powell introduced Miller.

Bus had the chance to make a quick impact when he had time inside the area, but his low shot lacked the power to test Smithies.

But he repaid his manager's faith and made amends when he slotted home the opener, following up to turn the ball home from close range after his initial effort was kept out.

However, with just a minute to go, Miller scored the equaliser after finding himself in space inside the area.

RUDI RED IS A ROVERS GIFT!

TOM THUMP: Cairney is mobbed after his opener

Leeds	0
Blackburn	3

BLACKBURN warmed up for Wednesday's FA Cup replay against Liverpool in fine style.

Leeds midfield man Rudi Austin gave them the perfect platform when he was sent off in the first half for elbowing Ben Marshall.

And, though Leeds resisted strongly until just after the hour mark, second-half goals by Tom Cairney, Jordan Rhodes and Jay Spearing settled the match

Blackburn, who had 19-year-old Spanish keeper David Raya on debut, withstood early pressure before almost taking a 13th-minute lead when Rhodes shot against the bar and Marshall fired the rebound into the side-netting.

Rhodes then produced a neat turn but shot over from eight yards.

And, when Austin had Leeds' best chance so far, he nodded Charlie Taylor's cross over the bar before leaving Leeds to battle on with 10 men.

Austin, back in after a five-match absence, was shown a straight red after referee Gary Sutton was called over by a linesman who had spotted the offence on Marshall off the ball.

Raya had been largely untested on his debut – his only first-half save keeping out Sam Byram's angled shot.

But Leeds keeper Marco Silvestri had to pull off a desperate stop to deny Rudy Gestede at point-blank range in the 49th minute.

Rovers had struggled to make their advantage count, with Leeds' tight marking starving strikers Rhodes and Gestede of clear-cut chances.

But two goals in seven minutes turned the game. The breakthrough arrived just after the hour when Gestede gave Giuseppe Bellusci the slip before Cairney shot powerfully past Silvestri.

Gestede limped off to be replaced by Chris Brown in the 64th minute – and a minute later, Marshall's long-distance shot smacked against a post.

Leeds were rocking, and it was all over when Cairney picked out Brown, whose accurate cross left the unmarked Rhodes the simple task of heading home his 17th goal of the season.

And 10 minutes from time, Bellusci allowed Spearing time to drill home the third.

Royals are stung by late Con job

Reading	1
Cardiff	1

CONOR McALENY'S late leveller ensured Reading's relegation fears continue to linger.

The Royals took an early lead when Pavel Pogrebnyak got a touch to Garath McCleary's nod-down to divert the ball past Cardiff keeper David Marshall.

But they allowed a mediocre Cardiff side to snatch a point in the 90th minute when McAleny rifled in a shot from Aron Gunnarsson's precise pass.

Reading may be FA Cup semi-finalists, but their league form has been decidedly patchy.

However, they looked well up for this one from the off – and were rewarded in the fourth minute when Jordan Obita's cross was headed back by McCleary for Pogrebnyak to guide home his third goal in two games.

Cardiff replied quickly, with McAleny having a snapshot from the edge of the area half-blocked, allowing keeper Adam Federici to gather.

Stung

Reading could have stretched their lead when captain Alex Pearce rose to meet a McCleary corner, but fellow centre-back Michael Hector got there before him and glanced his header wide.

The hosts continued to assert control after the break, with Chelsea loanee Nathan Ake impressing on his debut in midfield.

A McCleary chance then came and went as the winger hesitated too long before firing wide.

Cardiff responded with a low shot from Craig Noone, which Federici did well to save.

Reading went much closer in the closing stages. Sub Kwesi Appiah, on debut on loan from Crystal Palace, forced a fine stop from Marshall and Hector nodded a McCleary corner against the crossbar.

But they were stung late on by McAleny's fine finish from the edge of the area.

SAVIOUR: Gudjohnsen

GUD SPARES BOLTON BLUSHES

Bolton	1
Blackpool	1

SUPER SUB Eidur Gudjohnsen saved Bolton with virtually the last kick of the game – and denied Blackpool a first away win in 343 days.

Michael Jacobs' ninth-minute opener looked to have given the Seasiders their first success on the road since they beat Wigan almost a year ago.

But Wanderers mustered an equaliser in the FIFTH minute of stoppage time when Emile Heskey, Neil Danns and Gudjohnsen combined to leave the visitors crestfallen.

The home crowd were stunned into silence by Jacobs' early opener.

He collected a long, direct ball down the right, turned on the afterburners to accelerate away from Josh Vela and Paddy McCarthy, and lashed beyond Ben Amos in the Bolton goal.

And things almost got worse for shell-shocked Bolton as Peter Clarke headed straight at Amos and an unmarked Andrea Orlandi glanced over from six yards.

Barry Bannan nearly got an equaliser after the break, but he somehow put his side-footed strike against the post.

Bolton boss Neil Lennon decided enough was enough and brought on the strike trio of Heskey, Gudjohnsen and Craig Davies.

Their hopes looked to have gone when keeper Joe Lewis stopped McCarthy's header and Jamie O'Hara scrambled Matt Mills' effort off the line.

But there was still time for a dramatic finale as Danns' volley was helped in by Gudjohnsen on the line, with Blackpool waiting for an offside flag that never came.

KING'S SURVIVAL BOOST – BUT AGONY GOES ON FOR BIG SAM

KING STING: Andy King celebrates his winner

ANDY KING'S late winner gave rock-bottom Leicester's survival bid a huge shot in the arm.

But it was another bad day for West Ham boss Sam Allardyce, who has seen his ninth-placed side win just one of their last nine league games.

The Foxes raced into a 12th-minute lead through Esteban Cambiasso's fine strike and were awarded a penalty three minutes later when Carl Jenkinson brought down Leonardo Ulloa.

But David Nugent's spot-kick was saved by Adrian.

It looked for a long time

Leicester	2
West Ham	1

as if Nigel Pearson's side would be left regretting that failed attempt after casual play at the back allowed Cheikhou Kouyate to fire the Hammers level on 32 minutes.

Leicester spurned further decent chances after the break, while Kouyate hit the post at the other end.

But sub King's scrappy finish four minutes from time cut the Foxes' gap from safety to four points.

Leicester drew first blood when Nugent's prod forward bounced off the back of James Collins to sit up nicely for Cambiasso to crack home from outside the box.

Moments later referee Mark Clattenburg booked Jenkinson and pointed to the spot after the defender fouled Ulloa.

Decent

But Nugent saw his effort from 12 yards parried by the diving Adrian.

After Kouyate and Kevin Nolan failed to finish from decent positions, the Hammers drew level.

Alex Song's ball forward drifted into the box to Kouyate, who controlled before firing it in.

Robert Huth glanced a header wide and sub Marc Albrighton just failed to connect with a Jamie Vardy cross.

Vardy then saw a couple of decent chances go wide.

The Hammers had their chances, with Stewart Downing dragging an effort wide and Kouyate striking the woodwork before bringing a save out of Kasper Schmeichel.

But Leicester snatched all three points when Vardy's shot was diverted in from close range by King.

HIGH FLYERS: Ander Herrera celebrates his first strike with Ashley Young United message to noisy neighbours: We're above you!

ANDER HERRERA struck twice and Wayne Rooney bagged a stunner as Manchester United climbed above their "noisy neighbours" into third spot.

Herrera's first-half goal put United in front before Rooney doubled the lead with a contender for goal of the season.

Christian Benteke pulled one back for Aston Villa, but Herrera scored again late on to give United three vital points ahead of next Sunday's crunch Manchester derby.

The moment of the match belonged to Rooney. The United skipper pulled down substitute Angel di Maria's cross with his left foot, turned sharply and smashed the ball home with his right.

It was his 14th – and best – goal of the season for his club.

United's Champions League place looked in jeopardy a few weeks ago, but Liverpool's 4-1 beating at Arsenal means Louis van Gaal's men are now eight points clear of the Reds with seven games left.

Manchester United	3
Aston Villa	1

Villa will be concerned about their plight. Tim Sherwood's men will drop to fourth from bottom if Sunderland beat Newcastle today.

Raged

United thought they should have had a penalty in the sixth minute when Rooney tumbled to the turf after being pulled back by Ciaran Clark, but referee Roger East waved play on.

Rooney raged at the official as Villa hit back on the break, but Gabriel Agbonlahor could not finish despite a mix-up between Phil Jones and goalkeeper David de Gea.

It was to be Villa's only chance of the first half as United launched attack after attack.

Ashley Young tricked Alan Hutton for the first of many times, but Juan Mata could not finish the pull-back from the former Villa winger.

Villa keeper Brad Guzan then tipped over Marcos Rojo's blistering 30-yard drive.

Rooney's attempted overhead kick flew wide and Daley Blind went close with a low effort.

Then, one minute from the break, United took a desreved lead.

Young slipped the ball to Blind and he squared to Herrera, who took one touch before drilling a low half-volley past Guzan.

Young gave Jores Okore the same treatment as Hutton, bursting past the defender before curling a low shot just wide of the diving Guzan.

The American then did well to tip Marouane Fellaini's header over.

Young received a standing ovation when he was replaced by Di Maria in the 70th minute.

Nine minutes later, the Argie fired over the cross that led to Rooney's sensational strike.

Message

The celebrations were cut short when Benteke's shot slid in under De Gea to pull one back for Villa.

But Herrera made sure of the win in stoppage time. Rooney won the ball and laid it off to Mata, who teed up his fellow Spaniard – and he did the rest from 18 yards.

The message was clear – over to you, City.

High five for Jags makes it three in row for Toffees

PHIL JAGIELKA struck from close range to give Everton a third successive league triumph and back-to-back home wins in the top flight for the first time in almost a year.

The centre-back's fifth goal of the campaign for the Toffees represents his best goalscoring return in eight seasons at Goodison Park.

Considering Southampton had the chance to reclaim fifth place after Liverpool's earlier defeat at Arsenal, Saints were strangely lacklustre after dominating the opening 15 minutes.

Everton could easily have been behind as Shane Long's hanging cross was met with a looping volley from Graziano Pelle which Tim Howard had to claw out from under the crossbar.

James McCarthy was criticised for his lack of passion in the Republic of Ireland's recent internationals, but he seemed to enjoy being given more freedom and Ryan Bertrand's last-ditch intervention denied him a goal after being played in by Arouna Kone.

CONCERN: Ronald Koeman

Unlucky

Without injured leading scorer Romelu Lukaku, Everton needed someone else to shoulder the responsibility.

But not many would have backed Jagielka to be their greatest threat in the first half.

The England defender (below) reacted sharpest to sweep home Gareth Barry's cross on 16 minutes.

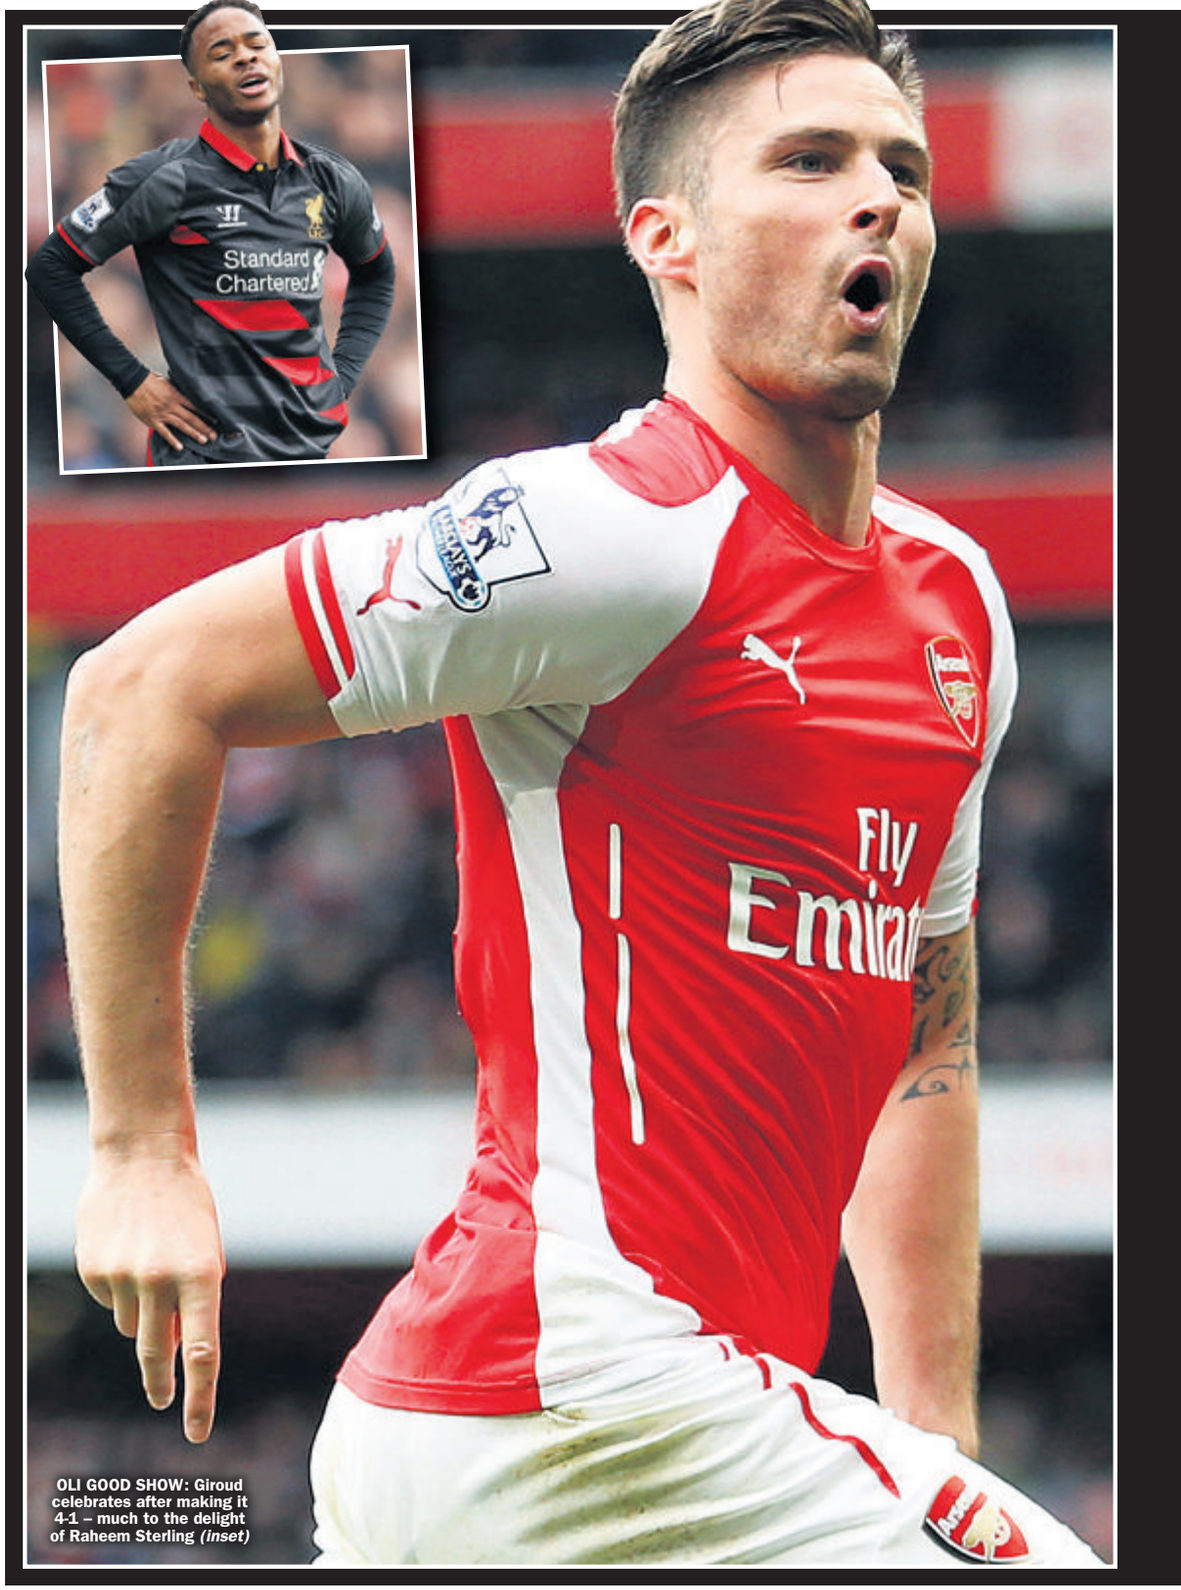
And he almost grabbed a second when he nodded over a Leighton Baines free-kick.

But Everton did not have it all their own way, with James Ward-Prowse twice unlucky not to find the net. The Southampton midfielder left Howard rooted to the spot with a free-kick which whistled just wide.

Then he watched the US keeper throw up a hand while diving the wrong way to keep out his long-range drive.

The second half was even less of a spectacle, having all the feeling of an end-of-season affair five weeks early.

That will have been of much greater concern to Saints boss Ronald Koeman than it was to Everton chief Roberto Martinez, who was booed for replacing Ross Barkley with Muhamed Besic after 71 minutes.



OLI GOOD SHOW: Giroud celebrates after making it 4-1 – much to the delight of Raheem Sterling (inset)

BOBBY'S SENSATIONAL LOB

West Brom 1
QPR 4

QPR grabbed a survival lifeline with a stunning win at 10-man West Brom.

Eduardo Vargas, Charlie Austin and a fabulous Bobby Zamora lob put Rangers 3-0 up at half-time.

And Joey Barton's stoppage-time strike put the seal on Rangers' second away win of the season.

Albion disintegrated in the first half and, while Victor Anichebe pulled a goal back after the break, they could not fight back and had Youssouf Mulumbu sent off late on.

QPR are now a point from safety, while the Baggies are still not safe yet.

Vargas replaced Junior Hoilett after his goal in the 2-1 defeat to Everton last time out and justified his recall after 15 minutes.

Austin flicked on for Vargas and the midfielder fired a low 25-yard drive past Boaz Myhill.

Earlier, Albion striker Brown Ideye – recalled after a knee injury – had nodded over when free at the far post.

And the Nigerian could have also equalised within four minutes when he directed Chris Baird's cross wide.

Vargas was forced off after half-an-hour, but it didn't stop Rangers doubling their lead seven minutes later.

Baird and Darren Fletcher lost possession to allow QPR to

IT'S ALL OVER FOR EU NOW!

Top four – and Sterling – look finished

BLOW: Brendan Rodgers

By JOHNNY BELL

ARSENAL dealt a hammer blow to Liverpool's top four hopes – and their chances of keeping Raheem Sterling.

The Kop outfit were blown away by three goals in eight first-half minutes at the Emirates and are now seven points from the Champions League places.

Sterling won't discuss a new contract until the end of the season and has admitted he wants to be at a club that can challenge for the biggest trophies.

And if Liverpool fail to make the top four, Man City, Chelsea and Real Madrid are all ready to offer the 20-year-old the chance to earn the mega wages he thinks he deserves.

The game was all over by half-time as Hector Bellerin, Mesut Ozil and Alexis Sanchez set the Gunners on their way to a seventh straight Premier League victory.

Liverpool netted a consolation penalty through captain Jordan Henderson – awarded for a foul on Sterling.

But the contest was over when Emre Can picked up his second yellow card, and Olivier Giroud curled home a late fourth.

Arsenal had made a blistering start, forcing Liverpool keeper Simon Mignolet into full-length saves from Santi Cazorla and then Aaron Ramsey.

Nightclub

Liverpool, without the suspended Martin Skrtel and Steven Gerrard, weathered the early storm and then started to look a threat on the counter.

Sterling should have opened the scoring in the 21st minute, but Lazar Markovic was at fault for cocking up the simplest of passes that would have left him with an open goal.

Arsenal made them pay via the unlikely source of Bellerin, who curled home a superb effort on 37 minutes.

Ozil fed Ramsey on the right, and the Welshman laid the ball off to Bellerin, who waltzed around Alberto Moreno before cracking a sublime low shot into the far corner.

And before Liverpool could regroup, they were two down.

Ozil was tripped by Mamadou Sakho just outside the area, and the German playmaker – criticised following his trip to a Berlin nightclub after missing Arsenal's win at Newcastle – curled the dead ball around the wall and past Mignolet.

It got worse for the visitors when Sanchez rifled in a third.

Ramsey played the ball into his path and the Chilean stepped inside Kolo Toure before blasting the ball into the roof of the net.

Brendan Rodgers had to change things and he replaced Markovic with Daniel Sturridge at the break.

In the 55th minute, Giroud's bullet header was brilliantly tipped over by Mignolet, before Arsenal keeper David Ospina had to be alert at the other end to stop a snapshot from Can.

Ramsey appeared to have hurt his ankle, and was replaced by Mathieu Flamini on 62 minutes.

With the hard work done, Arsenal took their foot off the gas – and gave Liverpool a lifeline when Bellerin tripped Sterling on 76 minutes.

Ospina got a hand to Henderson's spot-kick, but couldn't keep it out.

Blasted

But any momentum was lost when Can got a second yellow card with five minutes left after he stupidly went straight through the back of sub Danny Welbeck.

Cazorla's late curling 18-yard effort shaved the outside of the post.

And Giroud had the final say when he cut inside and blasted a left-foot shot into the top corner.

SENT OFF: David Meyler

It's a red end for reckless Meyler

Swansea	3
Hull	1

DAVID MEYLER was sent off for a reckless challenge as Hull failed to ease their relegation fears.

Ki-Sung Yueng and Bafetimbi Gomis gave Swansea a two-goal cushion at half-time.

Paul McShane halved the deficit five minutes after the break from a set-piece – but Hull's cause was damaged almost immediately when Meyler saw red for his challenge on Kyle Naughton.

Swansea had to wait until stoppage time to kill the game off, Gomis running unopposed from his own half to latch on to Gylfi Sigurdsson's long ball out of defence and finish with a deft chip over Hull keeper Alan McGregor.

Hull remain three points above the relegation zone but they will be casting nervous glances at the Burnley and Sunderland games today and have a tricky seven-game sequence to end their season.

Swansea scored with their first real attack after 17 minutes.

Stunning

Jonjo Shelvey was afforded space 25 yards out and McGregor pushed his shot straight to Ki, who finished smartly for his seventh goal of the season.

The Tigers conceded again when they failed to defend a second ball from a 37th-minute corner.

Gomis delivered a stunning bicycle kick from 10 yards, the first time the Frenchman has scored in successive games this season.

Hull were back in the game on 50 minutes when Alex Bruce flicked on a free-kick and McShane finished smartly from close range.

But Steve Bruce's side were reduced to 10 men after 53 minutes when Meyler flew into a tackle on Naughton and received a straight red card.

Naughton took no further part in the game and Swansea wrapped up the points late on.

McGregor stayed on his line instead of coming for a through-ball and Gomis finished the Tigers off.

BLOWS LIMP BAGGIES AWAY

break and win a corner. Matt Phillips' delivery was flicked on by Nico Kranjcar for Austin to nod in unmarked at the far post.

Shell-shocked, the Baggies buckled and conceded a third two minutes before half-time through Zamora's brilliant improvised effort.

There seemed little on when he edged ahead of Joleon Lescott on the corner of the box as they chased a long ball, only for the former England man to sensationally lob Myhill with the outside of his foot.

Anichebe replaced Stephane Sessegnon at the break and Albion went close when Craig Gardner fired straight at Rob Green after 54 minutes.

Austin then tested Myhill, but Anichebe made it 3-1 on 58 minutes when he glanced in Saido Berahino's cross from eight yards.

Green then saved Ideye's deflected effort as the Baggies improved.

Berahino should have made it 3-2 with 13 minutes left when he nodded a sitter at Green after Anichebe's knockdown found him free six yards out.

But any hopes of a late rally ended on 84 minutes when Albion substitute Mulumbu – who was on for just 12 minutes – was sent off after an aerial challenge with Barton.

And the Rangers midfielder grabbed a late fourth in stoppage time.

Albion failed to clear under pressure from Austin and Barton rammed in from close range.

Rodgers admits Kop's top-four dream is OVER

Arsenal 4 Liverpool 1

BRENDAN RODGERS says Liverpool's Champions League hopes are DOOMED after an Emirates spanking.

The Reds are now seven points adrift of the top four after a crushing 4-1 defeat to rampant Arsenal.

Goals from Hector Bellerin, Mesut Ozil, Alexis Sanchez and Olivier Giroud ensured a second defeat in two games for Liverpool, who were beaten by Manchester United last time out.

And Rodgers (below) admitted his dream of more Champions League football at Anfield next season is now hanging by a thread.

By JOHNNY BELL

He moaned: "I very much doubt we will be in the top four come the end of the season.

"There's too much ground to make up. That's the realistic view from me.

"Now, we must really focus on the FA Cup. That has to be very important for us. The commitment and reaction of the lads has been first-class since the defeat to Crystal Palace in November.

"Really, up until the United game we were the form team and playing very, very well.

"But we've been dealt two big blows in these last two games. We have not performed how we would like and that's cost us."
